Big 3 Reach Berlin, Await Start of Talks

Arrival of Molotov Expected Tomorrow; West Plans Strategy

BERLIN (AP) — U.S. Secretary of State Dulles, French Foreign Minister Georges Bidault and British Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden reached Germany today for a Big Four conference opening Monday.

Communist secrecy cloaked the movements of Soviet Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov, but he was expected in East Berlin by train tomorrow.

Arrange Get-Together

The three Western ministers arranged a get-together to set up strategy for the meeting. A French foreign ministry spokesman said the three would hold a pre-conference talk tomorrow at French headquarters.

Dulles, who flew to this divided city in President Eisenhower's plane, Columbine, said the Western powers "hope to unite Germany by giving the German people as a whole the right which our civilization treats as fundamental, including the right of a people by free elections to choose for themselves their own sovereign government."

The American secretary of state was the first to arrive. Dulles was followed shortly by Bidault, who came in by train from Paris. Eden stopped off in Duesseldorf on his way to Berlin and told reporters at the airfield there "nobody can expect a full solution to the problem (of Germany) can be found in a matter of a few weeks."

Eden Issues Warning

Speaking to newsmen before his departure from London, Eden warned:

"A conference like this must take time. For my part as long as we are making any progress at all, I am ready to devote any time that may be necessary."

Dulles also had expressed caution about the parley's prospects when he left Washington. "If the Soviet leaders come to Berlin with a genuine desire to create conditions of peace," he told reporters, "they will find us open minded and cooperative . . ."

But he queried: "Will Germany and indeed all Europe be unified for peace? Or will divisions be imposed which will make Europe again the breeder of war?"

Adenauer Optimistic

The most optimistic statement came from West German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer, sitting on the conference sidelines. He told the Foreign Affairs Committee of the Bonn Parliament there existed a real chance for the unification of East and West Germany in the Berlin talks.

This was an about face from the previous view in the West German capital, where most German officials have felt that nobody really wanted the parley and it was therefore doomed to failure.

It appeared the foreign minis-

Mayor Strives To Avert Walkout by Bus Drivers

An immediate walkout of bus drivers for the Marion Transit Co. was threatened today.

The strike threat developed when banks refused to cash pay checks issued the drivers this morning, John Tanner, president of Local 222, Transit Workers of America, said.

He said the drivers agreed to stay on the job temporarily at the request of Mayor Harold F. Robinson, who called a 1 p.m. meeting of bus company executives, union officials and city councilmen.

The drivers threatened to strike just before Christmas because of complaints of lack of bus repairs. At that time a committee of retail merchants was formed to help avoid the strike if possible.

The merchants, under the chairmanship of Al Hamburg, offered to try to raise $10,000 to make the necessary repairs on the busses. The money was to be raised through the sale of stock in the bus company.

With this offer, the bus drivers agreed to remain on their jobs until after the first of the year.

Mayor Robinson said today he understands the merchants committee has raised some $700 but that this money is being held in escrow until the entire $10,000 is raised.

At the meeting in the mayor's office this afternoon, doubt was raised by two city councilmen, Robert Haldeman and Richard Lister, that the $10,000 would ever be raised.

Councilman Harold Smith asked Floyd Kreisel, president of the bus company, how much money would be needed to meet the week's payroll, and was informed "about $1,000."

Financial difficulties forced a predecessor city bus company out of business. The Marion Rapid Transit Co. several years ago was faced with a strike of drivers, who wanted pay increases. The company said it didn't have the money, and when the drivers struck, the company was dissolved.

President Was Misinformed, Bricker Claims

Eisenhower Statement Contradicted; Treaty Proposal Is Defended

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Bricker (R-Ohio) charged today President Eisenhower last week "gave wide circulation" to "erroneous charges" that the Bricker treaty amendment would "turn back the clock to the old Articles of Confederation."

In a strongly worded letter to all other senators, Bricker said the President "has been misinformed" on the intent of the proposed constitutional amendment.

In his news conference Jan. 13, Eisenhower was asked his opinion of the controversial amendment, which Secretary of State Dulles and other top administration officials oppose. He said in reply the founding fathers wisely provided when a treaty was properly ratified it should take precedence over any state law including state constitutions.

He said under the Articles of Confederation which preceded the Constitution each of the states had the right to repudiate a treaty and that he would never agree to going back to the pre-Constitution system.

The President said when he deals with other nations he must speak for one government and not be involved in representing 48 separate states.

The heart of the amendment is this clause: "A treaty shall become effective as internal law in the United States only through legislation which would be valid in the absence of treaty."

Opponents of the proposed amendment, which originally was sponsored by 63 senators, contend this clause would demand individual state action on many treaties before they could become effective.

Bricker's letter said:

"The President at his press conference last week gave wide circulation to the erroneous charges noted above." These were: That the amendment, which is pending before the Senate, would require any treaty on any subject to be ratified by individual states; that it would give a state veto power over foreign affairs.

Morral Driver Found Guilty of Manslaughter

Faces Fine and Term In Jail; Part of His Sentence Is Suspended

Robert Massie, 40, of Morral, was found guilty of second degree manslaughter in a Common Pleas Court hearing this morning before Judge Paul D. Smith, who fined him $500 and costs and ordered him confined to the Marion County Jail for six months. Judge Smith also ordered his driver's license revoked for five years.

Massie was the driver of a car which was involved in a head-on collision with a motorcycle early in the morning of last Oct. 18. The motorcycle rider, Clifford L. Clark, 35, of the Werley Hotel was killed.

The fatal accident occurred on W. Fairground St., just outside the city.

Subject to his good behavior, Massie was placed on probation after Judge Smith suspended $400 of the fine and five months of the jail sentence.

Testimony brought out in the hearing indicated that both Massie and Clark were intoxicated at the time of the fatal accident. Massie waived trial by jury. His attorney was Riley Hall.

2 Men, Girl Trapped In Cleveland Robbery

CLEVELAND (AP) — Police surprised two men and a girl during an attempted filling station robbery today and shot one of the men as he tried to escape.

The wounded man William Kozer, 20, was taken to the prison ward at City Hospital with a bullet lodged near his spine.

Kozer was shot and the other man was captured later, hiding behind another building.

The girl, 16, was turned over to juvenile authorities.

Both Parties Open Fire on Ike's Budget

Stiff Congressional Trouble Predicted on President's Program

WASHINGTON (AP) — Portions of President Eisenhower's unbalanced 65½-billion-dollar spending budget for the next fiscal year today appeared to face some stiff bipartisan congressional trouble.

"Too much," said Chairman Taber (R-NY) of the House Appropriations Committee.

Rather risky, commented House Democratic Leader Rayburn of Texas, referring to a cut in planned national security spending. Many Congressmen, however, praised the emphasis on air power and new weapons. Rayburn agreed it was proper to put emphasis on both.

More Tax Cuts Wanted

Some Republicans and Democrats joined in commenting that the President's stand against cuts in corporation and excise tax rates was likely to face severe fire from a Congress anxious to cut taxes in a year when many members face re-election campaigns.

There was some criticism of plans for continued heavy foreign aid spending and, from a few Democrats, of proposed cutbacks in Army and Navy manpower.

And there was bipartisan unhappiness over the fact that the budget projects a federal deficit through the 1955 fiscal year starting July 1.

The reduced spending estimates came in for general praise, although there was some criticism of specific cuts.

The bulky document picturing the government's financial plans for the new year headed for the House Appropriations Committee, the first step toward congressional approval or revision.

3 Billion More

Taber, who always has insisted "there never was a budget that couldn't be cut," said his committee ought to be able to trim at least three billion dollars from the 56¼ billions in new appropriations requested for the coming year.

That, Taber told newsmen, might "get rid of the deficit," which the President estimated would be $2,928,000,000 for the year ending in mid-1955.

Told that Budget Director Joseph M. Dodge, the President's chief fiscal aide, had said such a cut would have to be made "at the expense of essential activities of the government," Taber replied:

"The proof of the pudding is in the eating."

Sen. Douglas (D-Ill) meanwhile predicted a federal deficit of "at least five billion dollars" for the current fiscal year and chided the administration for an "altogether too optimistic" estimate.

3½ Billion Deficit

Eisenhower estimated a year-end deficit next June 30 of $3,300,000,000.

Douglas said the Treasury Department reported a deficit earlier this month of $9,822,000,000, and added: "They now say they are going to pull that figure down to

Defense Plans Win Approval Of Republicans

Democrats Withhold Fire on Eisenhower's Plea for Air Power

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower's "new concept" for defense, emphasizing air power and new weapons while making a four-billion-dollar spending cut, got enthusiastic Republican support in Congress today.

Many Democrats withheld fire, saying they wanted to study the complex multibillion-dollar budget, but Sen. Maybank (D-SC) in an interview asked "expansion of our air power as fast as we can." He suggested unspent foreign aid funds be used to speed the Air Force program.

And Sen. Douglas (D-Ill) questioned plans to cut back ground forces of the Army and Marines.

Chairman Short (R-Mo) of the House Armed Services Committee said he does not expect any sharp fight in the House, but disclosed the committee has arranged for defense chiefs to expound the new policy to its members.

Short said Secretary of Defense Wilson and Adm. Arthur M. Radford, chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, will appear at a closed meeting Monday.

One Democratic member of the committee, Rep. Price of Illinois, said House Democrats probably would support the budget.

"As long as they (the administration) have awakened to the need of air power and atomic aims," he said in an interview, "we can go along with the risk in other fields, hoping they know more than they're telling us."

The senior Democratic member, Rep. Vinson of Georgia, was one of those reserving comment pending further study.

But Short said in an interview he got the impression Wilson "feels

Seek More Cuts

Democrats Gird To Fight President's Tax Program

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower's plea to Congress to hold the line against any further cuts in major tax rates smacked into strong opposition today.

Several key Democrats planned a floor fight in the almost evenly divided House for a plan to slice 2½ billion dollars a year off personal income taxes, relieving seven million taxpayers from any payment at all.

And some Republicans and Democrats alike predicted Congress would permit at least slight reductions in both corporation income and excise tax rates.

Eisenhower, in his annual budget message yesterday, strongly endorsed a project for rewriting almost all the nation's tax laws. His proposals would reduce revenue two billion dollars annually when they reach full effect, but this would be done through many changes in various deductions, allowances and other technical points—not through major rate changes.

Republicans generally applauded this program, but Rep. McCormack of Massachusetts, the assistant Democratic leader, accused the President of "political insincerity."

"Instead of appealing to the people to make sacrifices for greater national defense," McCormack said, "the President is appealing to their hopes for tax reductions.

"But apparently the only ones being considered in the President's program are corporations and large stockholders. If President

Relatives Get $15,000

Beatty Will Ruled Valid After Settlement of Suit

The will of the late Mrs. Olive A. Beatty, which had been challenged by 16 relatives in April, was sustained by a Common Pleas Court jury this morning after a $15,000 settlement had been reached and approved Thursday in Probate Court.

Mrs. Beatty's will, which was admitted to probate in December of 1952, provided that a trust fund of approximately $37,000 be set up for the "purpose of providing aid to animals of all kinds, particularly cats and birds."

THE 16 RELATIVES, in their petition filed with Common Pleas Court last spring, questioned the validity of the will, claiming they were Mrs. Beatty's heirs at law and next of kin.

The Marion woman, who lived at 202 S. Vine St., died Oct. 29, 1952, at the age of 84, leaving an estate appraised at $59,342. She bequeathed $20,000 of this amount to St. Paul's Episcopal Church and $2,000 among three friends and neighbors. The balance of the estate was to be used for setting up the trust fund for the animals.

PLAINTIFFS in the case were Susan Freshwater Brown of Dublin; Lenora Freshwater Jones, David E. Freshwater, Clarence Lane, Elinor Mooney Hubbard of Plain City; Falitha Williams Thomas of Powell; Jeanette Williams Monska of Delaware; George Freshwater, Ruth Lane Howard, and Grace Lane of Columbus; William Wollpert of Marysville; Emily Jane Mooney of Cincinnati; Otto Mooney Jr., Emily Mooney Thompson, and Jane Mooney Jones of Birmingham, Ala.; and John J. Wollpert of St. Petersburg, Fla.

Included among defendants in the will contest were Bernard C. Moloney, as executor of the will, St. Paul's Episcopal Church, and Edward J. Ruzzo, probate judge of Marion County, and Francis McDaniel, president of the Marion County Humane Society, as trustees of the trust fund.

The law firm of Wilhelm and Robinson represented the plaintiffs.

After the $15,000 settlement and the $22,000 bequests are paid from the estate, a balance of approximately $22,000 will remain. Money left after expenses of the estate are deducted will be used to set up the trust fund for the cats and birds.

Bucyrus Man Struck by Car, Fatally Injured

BUCYRUS — Ralph Petersilge, 63-year-old Bucyrus roof painter died at City Hospital at 3 a.m. today of injuries received last night when he was struck by a car in downtown Bucyrus.

The accident occurred about 11:30 p.m. Thursday as Petersilge walked north across Washington Square. He was struck by a car driven by 27-year-old William G. Mathias Jr., also of Bucyrus. Mathias told Bucyrus police he was driving east and did not see Petersilge.

Mathias stopped his auto following the mishap, picked up Petersilge and phoned police. An ambulance rushed Petersilge to the hospital where he died about three and one-half hours later of a fractured collar bone and internal injuries.

Police officials said no charges have been filed against Mathias.

The fatality was the first of the year in Bucyrus and the second in Crawford County.

Funeral arrangements, which will be in charge of the Munz Funeral Home, are incomplete.

21 Americans Elect To Stay In Compound

Group Holing Up With Communist Buddies Until Food Runs Out

PANMUNJOM, Saturday (AP) — The Korean War prisoners who stirred world wide controversy by their refusal to go home were turned loose today.

Twenty-one Americans, 1 Briton and 327 South Koreans who chose communism were abandoned by Indian guards in a flimsy neutral zone compound at 12:01 a. m. (10:01 a. m. Friday, EST).

Follow Red Orders

The pro-Red POWs said they would stay until their food runs out, echoing the demand of the Communist command that Indian troops stay on.

The U.N. Command liberated as civilians the nearly 22,000 anti-Red captives returned to it Wednesday by the Indian Command—a course the Allies assert was required by the armistice.

When official freedom came, more than 14,000 Chinese anti-Red POWs already were aboard American ships en route to Chinese Nationalist Formosa. More than 7,500 anti-Communist North Koreans were in South Korean Army reception centers.

Camp Quiet

An Indian officer said the pro-Communist north camp was "absolutely quiet." There was no celebration among the Koreans. A ROK official said most were asleep.

Some of the freed prisoners had been in stockades almost from the start of the Korean War 3½ years ago.

Allied insistence that no prisoners be forced to go home against their will was a major stumbling block in the prolonged armistice talks.

The pro-Red American, British, and South Korean POWs staged a sitdown strike in their compound. The purpose was to back the Communist position that they should be held until their fate is decided by a Korean peace conference. But it was considered likely that when their food runs out they will march north—and vanish behind the Iron Curtain.

Final Appeal Made

The Indian Command made a final appeal today for the Reds to accept the pro-Communist prisoners, but it was rejected.

Instead, the Reds warned Indian Lt. Gen. K. S. Thimayya it would consider the Indians responsible for seeing that there is no "abduction and dispersion" of the pro-Reds.

The Indian commander met with leaders of the pro-Red compound, U.S. Sgt. Richard G. Corden of East Providence, R. I., British Marine Andrew Condron and three leaders of the South Korean POWs.

"He gave them his position," an Indian spokesman said, "namely, that by midnight we shall withdraw our guards, withdraw our custody and shall have nothing to do with them."

The prisoners probably would have little trouble leaving the unguarded compound, however, since it is surrounded by only two strands of wire.

Charge Truce Wrecked

The Reds also bitterly accused the Indian command of "completely" wrecking the truce terms on POWs and warned them they must be responsible for seeing that there is no "abduction and dispersions" of the pro-Communist POWs.

While the Reds were protesting, Gen. John E. Hull, U. N. Far East commander, wrote Thimayya praising the "humane, efficient and expeditious manner in which anti-Communist Korean and Chinese personnel were transferred."

The 21 Americans, 1 Briton and 327 Koreans who chose communism over going home were placed in the ironic position of being rejected by the Communists because of the Red stand that the Indians had no right to free them.

The Reds contended that India, as chairman of the Neutral Nations Repatriation Commission, should keep them in custody until their fate was settled by a Korean peace conference. Earlier this week, the Reds refused to accept the 349.

The U. N. Command held that the armistice required unrepatri-

U.S. Economy Stable, Federal Report Shows

WASHINGTON—The cost of living dropped less than one-tenth of one per cent in December, a minor movement which the Bureau of Labor Statistics saw as evidence of "continued stability" in the economy.

The decline was the second consecutive monthly drop. BLS Commissioner Ewan Clague said, however, the price trends definitely "are not behaving like a business recession."

Together the November and December drops totaled ½ of 1 per cent. They brought the consumer price index near the end of 1953 to 114.9, using the 1947-49 averages as 100.

This was seven-tenths of 1 per cent higher than a year ago and 1.5 per cent higher than in February when price decontrol began.

Looking ahead a bit, Clague said the index normally would show declines for January and February also but recent strength shown in both food and commodity prices does not indicate the full seasonal drop will occur.

County's Share In U.S. Budget Is 22.5 Million

Marion County taxpayers will pay an estimated $22,560,000 in federal taxes if President Eisenhower's $65.6 billion budget is approved by Congress, the Ohio Chamber of Commerce reported today.

The estimated cost for the state-at-large under the federal spending program submitted by President Eisenhower would be $4,139,360,000, or a statewide average of $520.90 for every citizen of Ohio, the chamber said.

The estimate of Ohio's share was based upon calculations showing that the state's residents and taxpayers pay 6.31 per cent of the total federal tax burden. Chamber president, C. I. Weaver, said that while the burden of federal spending on Ohio taxpayers remains heavy, encouragement is given in the Eisenhower budget by the $12.3 billion reduction below the budget submitted by former President Truman a year ago.

This reduction means estimated tax savings of approximately $776,000,000 to Ohio taxpayers.

Estimated cost of the proposed federal budget to surrounding counties, with per capita share listed in parentheses, follows:

Crawford, $20,448,000 ($528); Delaware, $11,714,000 ($387); Hardin, $10,969,000 ($383); Morrow, $5,381,000 ($313); Union, $7,244,000 ($350); and Wyandot, $8,113,000 ($410).

Corn Production Placed Under Acreage Controls

WASHINGTON (AP)—The government, seeking to reduce corn production this year, has imposed curbs on plantings in a big commercial producing area.

Corn supplies are at a near peak. Big stocks have accumulated in the hands of the Agriculture Department under price support operations.

Production controls had previously been set up for 1954 crops of wheat, cotton, peanuts and principal types of tobacco to discourage further overproduction.

Secretary of Agriculture Benson has announced acreage allotments for corn in a designated commercial corn-producing area. He called for a reduction of 17.4 per cent in plantings in the area from last year. The allotment was set at 46,995,504 acres compared with 56,819,428 acres planted last year.

The aim of the allotments is to limit production in the area to about two billion bushels compared with a normal production of at least 2,400,000,00 bushels. But officials expect some increase in plantings outside the commercial area. Hence, the decline in the total crop, under normal conditions could be expected to be less than the proposed cutback in the commercial area.

Last year's U.S. corn production was 3,176,000,000 bushels. The department forecasts a carryover of old crop corn of at least 900,000,000 bushels when the 1954 crop is harvested. The bulk of it is expected to be stored under price support programs.

The commercial area includes 834 major corn-producing counties in Arkansas, Delaware, Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Kansas, Kentucky, Maryland, Michigan, Minnesota, Missouri, Nebraska, New Jersey, North Carolina, North Dakota, Ohio, Pennsylvania, South Dakota, Tennessee, Virginia, West Virginia and Wisconsin.

Farmers in the commercial area will be free to abide by or ignore their allotments, but only those who comply with them will be eligible for price supports, which will be 90 per cent of parity or about $1.60 a bushel.

Crestline PTA Members Volunteer for Campaign

CRESTLINE — Several mothers attending the Tuesday night meeting of the Crestline Parent Teachers Association volunteered to canvass the town in the forthcoming Mothers' March on Polio.

Addressing the group was Mrs. Glen D. Hoffman, chairman of the Mothers' March in Crestline. A movie concerning the drive was also shown.

Devotions were conducted by Rev. C. L. Yoder, pastor of the First Methodist Church. Earl Fletcher, program chairman, presented Miss Joy Weis, who gave a flute solo and Miss Adelheid Kirch, a German exchange student, who played a piano solo.

President Glen D. Hoffman presided at the business session when a report was made by Richard Helfrich and Thomas Prater of the safety committee. The association voted to put into effect the school patrol system which was used last school year.

A group of "classroom mothers" were selected to establish a closer relationship between the parents, teachers and school.

Woman Knifes Man Who Steps on Her Toes During Dance

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP)—A Phoenix woman today faced a one to three year prison sentence because she knifed a man after he stepped on her toes during a dance early Christmas morning.

Mrs. Mary Josephine Nadine Andrews, 20-year-old mother, admitted in Superior Court here today she slashed Orange Evans Jr. who was dancing with another woman.

Testimony at the trial produced evidence Mrs. Andrews drew a pocket knife and slashed Evans across the chest after he stepped on her foot. Evans needed six stitches to close the wound.

Ike's Concept of Military Spending Recalls Taft's

BY JAMES MARLOW

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Taft, if he were alive today, would probably be pleased at the unfolding ideas of the Eisenhower administration on military strategy and military spending.

In some ways they sound very much like his own.

Taft made a major Senate speech Jan. 5, 1951, in the midst of rearmament and the Korean War, cautioning against committing American troops to foreign battlefields and telling what he thought military expenses should be.

He envisioned an armed force of about 3,200,000 men with military expenses running around 40 billion dollars a year, and the biggest emphasis on air and naval power.

In his budget message to Congress yesterday President Eisenhower estimated military expenses for the fiscal year beginning in July at 37½ billion.

And the President said he expected the armed forces, now 3,400,000 men, to be cut to 3,300,000 by July and to just a litle over three million by July 1955.

According to the plans outlined by Eisenhower, the biggest spending would be on the Air Force, with the Navy next and the Army last.

Taft had said: "We should go just as far toward preparing for war as we can go in time of peace without weakening ourselves in the long run . . .

"Not only is an all-powerful air force the best possible defense for the United States, but is also the greatest deterrent to war."

In his message Eisenhower said his budget "is aimed at providing a strong military position which can be maintained over the extended period of the uneasy peace . . .

"It points toward the creation, maintenance and full exploitation of modern air power . . . This budget . . . provides greater expenditures for air power in the fiscal year 1955 (starting July 1) than in any year since the close of World War II."

Taft, in his 1951 speech, said: "What I object to is undertaking to fight that battle (against world-wide communism) on the vast land areas of the continent of Europe or the continent of Asia where we are at the greatest possible disadvantage in a war with Russia."

On Jan. 13, 1954, Secretary of State Dulles made a speech to the Council on Foreign Relations in New York.

He said that if the enemy was allowed to pick his own place for aggression, and the United States attempted to meet him there, it would have to be ready to fight on land everywhere, as well as at sea and in the air.

But that course will not be followed in the future, Dulles said. No longer could an enemy fight solely on a battleground of his own choosing.

And last month Eisenhower announced two U. S. divisions would be withdrawn from Korea.

Taft had said an all-powerful air force is the greatest "deterrent" to war. Dulles said: "The way to deter aggression is for the free community to be willing and able to respond vigorously at places and with means of his own choosing."

How? By "massive retaliation," Dulles said, which meant by the Air Force. He didn't mention "with atomic weapons" but that seemed implicit in the word "massive."

The Eisenhower administration doesn't share Taft's views on military alliances. Where Taft voted against the North Atlantic Pact, which put this country into alliance with Western Europe—the administration is all for it.

Before Korea the Truman administration had depended, not on land power, but on air power as a deterrent to Russia, and on European alliances. It was after Korea that the huge military buildup and expense began.

HOLLYWOOD GOSSIPS have gone into high gear with reports of a possible romance following the appearance together of June Haver and actor Fred MacMurray at a party. There had been previous whispers they were seeing each other. Miss Haver, who gave up her film career to enter a convent, recently left the Cloisters because of poor health. MacMurray's wife died last June.

New Bloomington Community Institute Scheduled Next Week

New Bloomington's Community Institute program will open next Tuesday afternoon for a two-day session.

The Tuesday afternoon session is scheduled to open at 1 p.m. at the school with a trumpet duo by Carl and Ronnie Breece, followed by the invocation by Rev. O. W. Robbins and the welcome by Robert Ruth, program committee member. Speakers at the first session will be Rev. C. E. Hershey, pastor of the Emmanuel Baptist Church in Marion, whose topic will be "My Trip Through the Holy Land", and state highway patrolman, G. E. Moore.

At 8 p.m. Tuesday, the second session will include a talk, "My Trip to India" by Harold Rittenhouse, IFYE student; Charlton Myers, Marion attorney, talking on "Practical Legal Matters"; and "Old New Bloomington" presented by Richard Boblenz. Announcement of exhibit winners will be made.

Following a business session at 1 p.m. Wednesday, the sessions for men and women will include cooking demonstrations by Mrs. Zuma Roberts of the Ohio Power Co. and a talk on fertilizer by George Alber of the Marion Plant Life Fertilizer Co. At the concluding Wednesday night program, members of the community will stage, "Up on Old Smoky". Entertainment between acts will consist of numbers by the Buckeye Four, Eagle's quartet.

On both evenings, cafeteria supper will be served by the New Bloomington junior class members assisted by their mothers and at the conclusion of the evenings programs, door prizes will be awarded.

Judges for the exhibit of home and farm produce will be: Miss Dorothy Gorby., Marion County home demonstration agent, for the women and girls' classes; Arthur H. Smith, county agricultural extension agent, for the men and boys' groups; and a Jay H. Maish Co. representative will judge the posters. Awards will be presented by Marion, LaRue, Richwood, Green Camp, Big Island, and New Bloomington merchants.

A trophy will be awarded for the best display of 25 ears of corn. A trophy winner for three years in succession will become permanent owner of the award.

PROSPECT SERMON THEME

"Adding Virtue to Virtue" will be the sermon theme Sunday morning at St. Paul Lutheran Church at Prospect. Church Council meeting will be held Monday night. Women of the church will meet at the home of Mrs. Charles McNeal Wednesday afternoon for sewing of rags for carpets.

Keys to Happy Life Described By Evangelist

"What Most People Want Out of Life" was the subject of Rev. Charles Taylor when he spoke to the Marion County Council of Church Women Wednesday afternoon in the service chapel of Epworth Methodist Church. He is the evangelist with the Taylor Brothers, evangelistic team conducting the union Spiritual Victory Crusade in Marion.

"Most of us don't seek a great amount of wealth or fame," he said, "but we do want to feel that our lives are useful, and to realize a certain measure of peace, joy, and contentment in serving God and our families well." He discussed three rules for a happy life; "Don't try to please everybody; do try to get the other fellow's point of view; and make Christ the head of your house Urging the women to maintain their leadership in the church, "If it be lost, men will become less interested, proportionately," he pointed out.

Women of Epworth Church were hostesses, with Mrs. A. W. Kette chairman, giving the welcome Mrs. Fred Ellery presented the devotions. Ushers were Mr. J. F. Neidhart and Mrs C. L. Bartlett. Registration was in charge of Miss De Emma Hawley. Pianist for the service was Mrs. R. C. Alexander, and special music was by Mrs. Philip Duckworth who sang "Come Unto Him" accompanied by Mrs. J. W. Baker.

Mrs. Fred Dutt, president, was in charge of the business session. Mrs. Leo Keller, literature chairman, reported eight new subscriptions to The Church Woman, and Mr. H. M. Brewer, radio chairman, reported on two radio programs recently sponsored by the women's group on WMRN. Mrs. Alexander, world relations chairman, reported a successful World Community Day service held in November, with an offering of $57.39 and generous contributions in material gifts for refugees in Christian centers throughout the world.

Mrs. Dutt announced that the next meeting will be held at First Presbyterian Church, Feb. 18, at which time there will be shown a film strip, "World Day of Prayer Around the World", portraying the 1952 observance of World Day of Prayer and showing for what projects Day of Prayer offerings are used. The 1954 Day of Prayer observance here will be held March 5 at 2 p.m. at Calvary EUB Church, with Mrs. Darrel Vermillion, world mission schairman, presiding. Posters and pamphlets for this service were distributed.

Two Boys in Keller Family Shake Effects of Polio

Parents of Victims Assist Fight, Ask Help in Dimes Drive

Old Man Polio stopped at a neat, white frame house at the corner of East Church and Spencer Sts. last summer and knocked on the door—twice-

He knew he would get in, for medical science and intensive research hadn't quite developed the long-sought serum that could turn this visitor away.

The boys the old man wanted to call on were Ronnie Keller, 8, and his brother John, 11, sons of Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Keller of 1199 East Church St.

The old man used his usual tricks — he wore a disguise that delayed diagnosis. He also showed the perverse side of his nature by singling out Ronnie at a time when Ronnie felt he had seen enough of doctors and hospitals. Only five months earlier he had undergone serious leg surgery.

The family doctor hustled him off to Children's Hospital in Columbus where diagnosis identified the trouble as polio.

From Aug. 19 until late September, Ronnie received treatment at the hospital.

On Aug. 24 his brother John, meanwhile stricken with polio, joined him in the hospital. His, however, was a milder case.

Polio is unpredictable, and the Kellers had little hope of getting their boys back home quickly. "Probably not till after Christmas" was the only answer they could get during the long weeks Ronnie was at the hospital. But things came along fine and the family was reunited by the end of September.

THE ROBERT KELLER family has been happily reunited at their home on E. Church St. after the boys were confined in a Columbus hospital for treatment of polio. The family includes John, 11, at left, and Ronnie, age 8, and their mother and father, Sally and Robert Keller.

Every day for over five weeks, the parents drove to Columbus to spend a precious few minutes, first with one of their sons and, after Aug. 24 with both. It was strictly a touch-and-go existence for both parents and sons. Meanwhile, a hospital bill of nearly $1,000 was building up, not including therapy and medical attention.

So many things happened in those few hectic weeks that the Kellers are only now becoming able to view the events a little more objectively. Here are some of their random comments in a recent interview.

"We never knew we had so many friends.

"We never knew how so many suffering people in an overcrowded hospital could keep up their spirits.

"We never would have believed that so many parents, visiting their children at the hospital, could become bound so closely by a common enemy. Racial, social and denominational differences simply disappeared when those parents were together. It was the same among the patients.

"We never knew how fortunate we were — and had been — until we saw so many others whose problems were so much worse.

"We never knew we would ever be drawing on the spiritual resources we had built up over the years by attending church and Sunday School — you just can't take experiences like these without help.

"Sure — everyone knows that polio could come into their home, but you can't realize what an experience it is until it happens."

Bob Keller, the father, is employed by the Erie railroad and had a Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen policy that helped on the hospital bill.

But one of the truly comforting experiences through this troublesome period was the knowledge that the Marion County polio organization was backing them in the tremendous program of medical care their boys needed.

Dr. F. W. Rea, county president, told them in the beginning they would have help with the burdensome expenses, and helped assure the boys of the finest medical attention available.

"Dr. Rea also plunged us into another kind of debt that we'll never be able to pay off," Mr. Keller said. "He told us that whatever financial help the Marion County chapter gave us should be regarded as a loan, rather than a gift—a loan that we are to attempt to repay in donations of both money and service in the fight against polio in the years ahead. He said there were no papers to sign — no notes — we were obligated only to our own consciences. We'll never be able to do enough to repay either the Marion County Chapter or our hundreds of friends who helped us in so many ways."

It is understandable that the Kellers are extremely polio conscious, and that they are willing to play a helpful part in the current campaign for funds to help fight polio, largely because of a feeling of gratitude for the help they have received.

But let Mrs. Keller tell the rest of the story about their attitude toward polio and fund-raising:

"One of our boys had one type of polio. The other had two types. There are three types of polio virus, and our boys are immune only to the specific types they contracted.

"So, polio is still a very real future threat to our family, in spite of what it has already done. One of the biggest incentives to support the March of Dimes is the work the National Foundation is doing on vaccines that may be able to relieve every parent and every child of this terrible threat. All of us can well afford to work and pray that the vaccines now being tested will prove to be the effective preventive than can turn polio away from our doors forever. The local help is tremendous and wonderful. But the real battle is for national research to develop this vaccine. That work dare not stop if we hope to find the true answer to the polio problem."

The two polio patients, meanwhile, are doing fine. They still maintain some new friendships made during their stay at the hospital.

Three of their grandparents are living — Mr. and Mrs. Leo Keller of 174 Kensington and Mrs. W. H. Davids of Prospect, the mother of Mrs. Keller.

Candidates for Morrow Electric Are Nominated

MT. GILEAD—Candidates for the Morrow Rural Electric Co-op board have been nominated in three of the co-op's nine districts.

Election to the board is for a three-year term with only three of the nine service areas holding elections each year. On Jan. 21, election ballots listing the names of nominees from each district will be mailed to each co-op member in the districts holding elections.

Nominated from District Six, which includes Perry, Richland, Middlebury and Perry Townships were: John Simmons, Raymond Hines and Edwin Burch. From District Seven, the north half of Gilead Township and Congress Township, were named: Donald Mitchell, Howard Killen and Richard Logan. Nominees from District Eight, New Bloomfield and Washington Townships, are: D. A. Snyder, Clyde Perkins and Hugh Sipes.

The committee handling the 1954 election is composed of Merrill Cowgill, chairman, Glen Sanderlin and Alex Fuller.

Skip the Arithmetic

The federal budget fills a book that weighs about 10 pounds when its complicated arithmetic is included.

So it's no disgrace to skip the complicated arithmetic when the annual budget message is being discussed and concentrate, instead on budget philosophy.

Big budgets — the new one is for 65½ billion—began to get that way in 1932 when the federal government began to take responsibility for things formerly done by state and local government or not done at all. That was a new philosophy.

In 1932, the budget went over 4 billion. Two years later it went over 6 billion. Two years later it went over 8 billion. Then in 1941 it went over 13 billion. The new philosophy was going strong.

After that, due to a combination of war and the new philosophy, all previous ideas of what was possible went haywire. The budget9 got close to 99 billion in 1949, the last year of World War II.

It receded to 33 billion at its lowest postwar point in 1947 but went back to 74 billion plus in the year that ended last June 30. There was no limit in sight unless something was done about the new philosophy.

Today, something has been done. The philosophy of the administration now responsible for the federal budget is to hold down spending. At great political risk it is even trying to hold down the one kind of spending which previously had been untouchable — the nearly 70 cents of every federal dollar spent for military purposes.

The administration also is trying to hold down taxing, on the supposition that its citizens should spend more of their own money for what they want.

The administration is unable, to its deep embarrassment, to bring about a balanced budget, as its spokesmen had promised to do. They were uninformed at that time about two things —the enormous size of the commitments which the government had made and could not cancel and the vigor with which congressmen, Republicans included, would resist every effort to save money.

It's the spending of money that brings political good will, not its saving. Not being politicians, the men who went to Washington with President Eisenhower to apply business practices to government, underestimated the enormity of the task they were starting.

They don't underestimate it any more. They still hope to bring spending down within balancing distance of taxing, without increasing taxes. But they know now it will take perhaps two more years and may even lead to their political defeat.

Neverhtheless, they intend to keep trying. The new budget is a sample of their efforts. By the time Congress gets through rearranging their arithmetic sometime before next Labor Day the result also may be a rebuke to their efforts. That is the risk they have to take.

The administration only proposes a budget. Congress decides what the budget is going to be — and Congressmen still love to spend other people's money.

Sickness Catastrophe Insurance

President Eisenhower's proposals for federal reinsurance of private health insurance plans, plus a stepped-up program of rehabilitation and medical-care construction are borrowed from the thinking of Rep. Wolverton of New Jersey.

Wolverton already has opened hearings on bills to establish a federal corporation to handle hospital and medical-care "reinsurance." The word means in this connection that the government would "reinsure" private and nonprofit companies against claims in excess of $1,000 paid to subscribers for unusually expensive care.

The philosophy was summed up during his presidential campaign in 1952 when Dwight D. Eisenhower said:

"No one has yet found a way to insure against a serious illness which is not temporary but is catastrophic for the entire family concerned. For purposes like this, the usefulness of federal loans or other aid to local health plans should be explored."

The same philosophy was expressed in December of 1952 by President Truman's Commission on the Health Needs of the Nation, which recommended "federal reinsurance of private prepayment plans to enable them to extend their services and still be protected from financial catastrophe."

The problem arises because private and nonprofit organizations writing health insurance lack the acturial date to set premium rates for unusually long and severe illnesses. The limits they set of necessity on the size of the claims they will allow has the unintended effect of leaving some of their subscribers without protection when they need it most.

We have always admired the checkroom attendant who can remember whose coat and hat are which without handing out a check, but even we could have done as much at the ritzy New York wedding when Albert Einstein checked a stocking cap and an overcoat with an NRA label in it.

Four-Power Talks Just Chapter in Cold War

These are days of illusion — of making believe things are different from what they are.

Thus, a four-power conference is to be held next week in Berlin. To the whole world the impression has been conveyed that the Foreign secretaries of the four major powers — Soviet Russia, Great Britain, France and the United State — will sit down together and attempt to negotiate a settlement of world problems.

Everybody who knows the score is well aware that no such thing will happen.

For one thing, if there were to be any concessions or any trading or bargaining or anything that could remotely resemble negotiation, it would not be carried on under klieg lights.

-:-

THE FOUR-POWER representatives, to be sure, will hold their meetings with the press excluded, but a conference of foreign secretaries is by no means a cozy little affair with only four persons present.

The interpreters or translators and the secretaries and the deputies and their assistants are always present. It makes quite a gathering.

Little can be done by way of negotiation under such semi-public circumstances.

If Soviet Russia had any concession to make, if it had anything to offer by way of a plan that might form the basis for mutual discussion, the facts could have been better transmitted privately through diplomatic channels.

Each of the allied governments has an ambassador at Moscow, and the Soviet regime has an ambassador in each of the three other countries.

They can go to the foreign offices and talk in private any time there is an occasion to discuss something important. That was the way diplomacy used to be carried on.

-:-

WHY THEN are four-power conferences held? Only as a means of propaganda and counter-propaganda.

The governments of the United States, France and Great Britain cannot turn down an offer to talk. As long as they maintain diplomatic relations, they are compelled to talk — in private or in public whenever one party wants such conversations or conferences.

If America, for example, says—as President Eisenhower did several months ago — that there is no sense in having a conference unless some concrete evidence of a desire to negotiate is forthcoming, the Communists get busy with their propaganda and accuse this country of blocking peace or of being unwilling to remove world tension.

Coincidentally, well-meaning persons — politicians, editors, clergymen and others who haven't the slightest sympathy with the Communist side — begin to say that America cannot afford to be in the position of refusing to talk. Then the administration yields and agrees to send its representative to a conference.

Finally, after weeks of propaganda throughout the world, the time of the meeting is decided upon and arrangements are finally made for a conference.

THE SOVIETS will make proposals that, of course, will become public. There will be a world-wide discussion of the different viewpoints and in the end the Soviets will refuse to give ground but will seek some circumstance around which to build a case to the effect that the Allies want war.

It seems to be important to the Soviets to continue to let their people believe that the West is bent on war, and the four-power conference is a means whereby Moscow seeks to show that it is conciliatory and ready to make a settlement, but that the Allies are not.

The propaganda war is carried on with an eye toward Asia, which is the principal battleground today.

All previous conferences with the Soviets have lasted weeks and weeks without result. Not a single international conference in which the Soviets have participated since the close of World War II has led to any result that could be said to have removed tension even for a brief period.

-:-

THE SOVIET negotiators are counting mostly on the division among the Allies. They see Britain ready to trade with Red China. They see appeasement sentiment rising in Europe. This is an opportune moment to put America on the spot — as the Communists see it.

The American secretary of state, John Foster Dulles, is an experienced negotiator and a man who is well aware of the tricks used by the Communists.

It is unfortunate that so many persons in the free world have been led to believe a real "negotiation" is forthcoming — when actually it is just another chapter in the propaganda battle of the "cold war."

Cozening Cats

By TRUMAN TWILL

This is about cats again. T. Manville says he is not going to change his name to Rubirosa. Says it would be an anti-climax in his own career but hopes someone will remember the name when his nine lives have run out and there is a successor to be named.

T. Manville is not going to write anything this time. We are going to write about him and his little chums, Little Kitten and Baby Kitten. Specifically, we are going to write about the perspicacity of cats in the art of advancing their own interests.

All the cats we've ever had at our house, and they could be numbered by the dozen, have found out in a hurry they're wasting their time making up to me. I respect cats for their good qualities and have no tolerance of their bad ones.

With dogs, on the other hand, I can be endlessly patient and have been, sometimes to my own disgust. There should have been more occasions when I punted a dog out of the path of progress along with the cats which entwined themselves about my feet and ankles.

I look with awe upon the perspicacity of cats, however. They catch on quick. There is one member of our household who is a sucker for them. To this member of the household, cats are loveydovery, though most cat fiends themselves admit there is no affection in the cat family.

Anyway, the cats know exactly how to work this victim of their duplicity to their own advantage. They rub and purr and blink their big green eyes. They arch their backs and make little chirping noises. They look as if they hadn't had anything to eat since they caught their last chippie at the end of last summer.

And they always get what they want.

They ge fed up to four times a day by the simple expedient of making a fuss over one human being with a weakness for cats. The truth is they get fed so often they can't eat all of it, though they stuff themselves until all they can do is roll up in a corner and sleep it off for the next six hours.

All of this is planned as deliberately as the setup in a confidence game or a badger game. The cats know exactly what they are doing. They are cozening a fellow creature in order to get more than is coming to them. They are being deliberately deceitful. They neither need nor want what they obtain with their deception, but they practice it anyway, the same as a weasel commits murder for the fun of killing.

We have pointed this out to T. Manville during our many discussions of his domain in the animal kingdom. He, himself, is a graduate student of deception; he has made a successful career of cozening. This is a good word, by the way. It means to defraud in small ways by small arts.

Not all the cozeners in the animal kingdom are cats. But if you watch the cats, you'll get the hang of cozening—and once you see how it works in some of its simpler forms you will have a lot more respect for cats or a lot less respect for human beings, who practice cozening in its more elegant and complex forms.

Melon Mystery

DUNCAN, Okla. (AP) — Here's a switch on watermelon stealing stories:

Clifford Green called police to report a melon raid—someone had left his front yard "covered with watermelons." Police hurried to the scene but could find no clue to the identity of Green's benefactor.

Green told the officers to forget the matter, he was happy with his free watermelon patch.

Ethics in Government

By Raymond Moley

It is rather unusual to find Gov. Dewey and Sen. McCarthy in the same category, but the former, by a proposal to the New York Legislature, and the latter, by the course which his investigations probably will take, are raising the same question. What, after all, are to be the standards of honesty which should be observed in government?

Both of them will find the going hard when they come to the critical issue of what is right and what is wrong in public life.

THAT CRITICAL issue involves one of the fundamental quests which have concerned philosophers and statesmen from the beginning of time. One reason why it has not and probably cannot be finally and definitively resolved is that moral standards are, we hope and believe, in a state of evolution.

The march of civilization implies that we learn constantly of newer and better ways of living together. Conduct tolerated in a senator of the United States when Webster and Clay were in office would not meet the standards of a Taft or a George. No Tammany leader would talk about "honest graft," as did Plunkett half a century ago.

Another reason why it is difficult to fix standards is the fact that forms of wrongdoing change with alterations in economic patterns and social evolution.

Before the Eighteenth Amendmend the corrupt payoff between the underworld and the underside of politics came from the profits of rather small - time gambling and prostitution.

In the 1920's it came from liquor. Now is comes, at least in New York, from big-time gambling.

In Washington corruption grew in proportion to the size of government spending. Only the iron hand of the Jesse Joneses held back the grafters' rush in war days.

-:-

SEN. McCARTHY will not find, as he gets into the "mess," about which so little has been done in the first year of Republican control, that he will be confronted with the eternal question, "What is right?" That cannot be decided by headlines or oratory. It must be thought out.

Gov. Dewey proposes a special committee of the Legislature to develop a code of public morals and to propose legislation to implement such a code. This is a formidable undertaking.

Some help can come from a position taken by Franklin D. Roosevelt when he was trying Sheriff Tom Farley in the "tin box" days of the early 30's.

-:-

HE HELD in substance that the burden of proof should be shifted to the officeholder when his standard of living and expenditures exceeded what he got in the public job to which he was elected or appointed. This was a notable advance in the building of standards of public morality.

Gov. Dewey has pointed the way to a real contribution ot public morality.

Sen. McCarthy can make a similar contribution if, in ferreting out unsavory activities under the Truman regime, he also will give some attention to the constructive issue of what is right.

New Congressmen

By JANE EADS

WASHINGTON

New members of Congress and their wives had a chance to say "howdy" to each other and get acquainted with the old-timers at the Congressional Club's traditional homey open house.

The club is made up of the wives of members of Congress. In the receiving line with Mrs. Lawrence H. Smith, club president, and her husband, the Republican congressman from Wisconsin, were the new Republican senator from New Hampshire, Robert W. Upton, and his wife. They told me they like to collect antiques but find their Washington apartment a bit cramped compared to the historic red brick mansion they call home at Concord.

Rep. Robert Ashmore (D.-S.C.) said his wife came up from Greenville to get him settled but returned to see out the school year with their daughter, Nancy Vance, 10. Georgia congressman and Mrs. John L. Pilcher, who came to Washington just after the club had its welcoming fete last year, were also in the line. Mrs. Pilcher wearing a big-brimmed hat of turquoise angora that drew admiring glances.

Others present included Democratic Congressman and Mrs. William H. Natcher of Kentucky, expressing delight over finding a house and getting their daughters, Louise, 10, and Celeste, 14, into school; and Republican Congressman and Mrs. Glennard P. Lipscomb of California, likewise pleased over finding a home and getting their daughters, Diane, 12, and Joyce, 10, in school.

One of the main objects of the Congressional Club is to make folks feel at home. With the welcoming shindig as an opener, things will really begin to hum at the club's gracious mansion quarters.

Biggest event coming up is the reception in February for President and Mrs. Eisenhower, to be followed later in the season with a party for Chief Justice and Mrs. Earl Warren and Speaker of the House Joe Martin. Winding up the 1954 program will be the May breakfast for Mrs. Eisenhower.

The club, set up by Act of Congress in 1902, now boasts some 500 members and has something scheduled for practically every day in the week. There are the Friday teas and programs, bridge games every Monday, Red Cross workshops every Tuesday and classes in public speaking, Spanish, French and millinery. A Sunday night buffet supper for members is held once a month; formal luncheons every Thursday for guests; a Wednesday business meeting once monthly and parties on Saturdays for associate members, teen-agers and children of members.

Hospitality Is Success

ADEN (AP)—Arab traditions of hospitality were used by a British official recently to trap a troublesome group of Aden Arabs. The Arabs were members of the Aulaqi tribes in revolt against their ruler Amir Abdullah Ben Mohsin. The Amir had appealed to British officials for aid. The British invited rebel leaders to the Amir's house for discussion of differences. Since Arab traditions prevent any guest from carrying a rifle on entering the home of his host, the rebels arrived unarmed. The British officials arrested the unarmed Arabs and are keeping them as hostages.

Likes Who-Done-Its

CAMBRIDGE, Mass. (AP)—Harvard may be noted for its culture but the most popular books with students and faculty are murder mysteries, according to Robert H. Haynes, assistant at Harvard's huge Widener Library. "At any particular time," Haynes says, "one or maybe two thousand murder mysteries are out of the library."

The Once Over

By H. I. Phillips

No Time for Wisecracks

Having taken plenty of time for our diagnosis and verdict in the Arthur Godfrey-Teterboro case, we prescribe a good rest.

There are no laughs in anything conducive to a frightful airplane tragedy and nothing amusing in the violation (intentional or unintentional) of rules governing take-offs from busy airfields. Gags and giggles over a national network in relation to such matters are out of bounds.

Derisive cracks at national, state and city boards, whose first duty is to make flying safe, are hard to take. Arthur Godfrey in 20 years on the airwaves, and as a flier, never followed that pattern of behavior until now.

A harrowing operation, a slow recovery, plenty of daily pain and increasing nervous strain, as a result of trying to do too much for too many, don't leave any man "in the pink." They make anybody touchy and irascible, and change his mormal reactions. Which is why this column thinks the big guy needs a rest.

Something's wrong with any public figure and top entertainer when he makes jokes of hair-raising airplane incidents which jar a nation, seeks laughs on his description of the speed with which brave men left a tower, and asks scornfully of an appointed airport official, "Who is that guy? Maybe he will run for governor on this."

Godfrey has done great things for aviation up to now. On his 20-year record we would drop the matter by grounding his ukelele, suspending his pipe-smoking license (after all these years of getting us to smoke cigarettes) and ordering him to read "How to Win Friends and Influence People" all over again. But on his recent behavior, beginning with the La Rosa case and entailing almost an all-out effort to get a bad press, we wouldn't dismiss it so lightly.

-:-

Arthur is 50, reaching an age when a man doesn't find any job as easy as it used to be. He's had it tough in that hip affliction. He's lost one of his big sponsors. Put on top of that the fact that any man, after decades of adulation and eminence, is apt to get a little "uppity."

Lastly, he works as if he thought himself a pack mule instead of a human being. This can make a nervous wreck of a guy.

All of which may explain why a fellow who has won he hearts of millions of Americans, through good humor and gentle routines, should all of a sudden "bust out all over," breaking rules, thumbing his nose at authority, belittling critics and even making the low crack that the newspapers reported the Teterboro incident because "there was little news and they had to do something to make headlines."

Anyhow, it's nerves, Buster, induced by pain, worry, overwork, tension, easy money, too much applause between commercials and that sudden switch to a pipe. Rest up, kid, and then be nice like you used to be!

America will sell no butter to Russia, as proposed, at a price far below what Americans have to pay. . . Anyhow, Russia wouldn't take it unless it got butter knives and bread lend-lease.

Saddest people in land are the members of the cast of South Pacific, just closed after a four-year run. They had come to regard it as a part of their daily existence, living and loving the parts. We saw the opening performance out of town and it was so perfectly written and produced. That it was as good that night as it ever was. Understatement of the decade was a remark of Bob Stevenson to Rodgers and Hammerstein at the opening, "This show will run a couple of years."

N.Y. Stock Quotations

NEW YORK (AP)—Railroads and aircrafts provided almost the sole prop under the stock market today.

Gains ran to between 1 and 3 points in those two divisions while elsewhere in the list changes were mostly in the smaller fractions.

Railroads, which were neglected yesterday, staged a comeback today with the gains well distributed.

There were no major divisions of the market unduly depressed.

Among higher stocks were Boeing, United Aircraft, Santa Fe, New York Central, Southern Railway, General Dynamics, and Pacific Western Oil.

Lower were National Distillers, American Telephone and Du Pont.

The Evangelical and Reformed Church in Delaware was the scene of the wedding of Miss Sandra Ann Noggle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank H. Noggle of Delaware, and Charles R. Gorgas, Jan. 17. The bride's family formerly lived in Marion. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Gorgas of Delaware.

White gladioli and pompons, palms and lighted tapers decorated the altar for the ceremony read at 4 o'clock by Rev. Arwood Sterrett. The wedding music was by Mrs. Richard R. Gay, organist and Miss Shirley Jones, vocalist.

Escorted to the altar by her father the bride wore a waltz-length dress of white satin brocade, made princess style with a self-buttoned mandarin jacket. Her white satin hat had a short nose veil and she carried a white orchid and white shattered carnations on a white prayer book.

Mrs. Thomas Newell of Delaware, sister of the bridegroom, was the matron of honor and bridesmaid was Miss Eleanor Noggle, sister of the bride. Their coat style dresses were in a powder blue shade and their bouquets were pink rosebuds and white carnations.

Mr. Newell served as best man for the bridegroom and ushers were Eugene Noggle, brother of the bride, and her uncle, Richard Temple.

Hostesses for the reception held in the church were Mrs. Richard Temple, Mrs. Joseph Hepner of Delaware, and Mrs. Durward Paxson of Upper Sandusky. The table was laid with a lace cloth brought from Sicily by the bride's brother.

Mrs. Noggle wore a two-piece dress of champagne corde with brown accessories and a corsage of green orchids. The bridegroom's mother chose a two-piece dress of navy blue corde and wore pink orchids.

Both the bride and bridegroom were graduated from Willis High School in Delaware. The bride is a receptionist in the office of Dr. Edward Jenkins. The bridegroom is employed by the Buckeye Furnace Co. in Columbus.

When the couple left on a wedding trip the bride wore a two-piece navy blue knit suit, matching coat, and her wedding orchid. The couple will make their home with the bride's parents for the present.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert W. Klingel received approximately 270 relatives and friends Sunday at their home in Cardington, in celebration of their golden wedding anniversary. Decorations throughout the rooms were bouquets of yellow chrysanthemums and roses. The refreshment table, laid with a lace cloth, was centered with a wedding cake decorated with a miniature bride and bridegroom, and lighted with white tapers.

The celebrants' granddaughters, Mrs. Carl Ackerman of Cardington, Mrs. Thomas Abriel of Trenton, Mich., Mrs. Eugene Heimlich of Cardington and Mrs. Kenneth Heimlich of Fulton, served. Assisting during the afternoon and evening were Mrs. Homer Ebert, Mrs. Edward Rachel and Mrs. Ross Keen.

Guests were from Boston, Mass., Toledo, Marion, Ashland, Fremont, Mt. Gilead, Upper Sandusky, Ashley, Marengo, Cardington, Mansfiled, Waldo, Worthington and Columbus.

Announcement is being made of the marriage of Miss Blanca Alicia Gomez, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tomas Gomez of Laredo, Tex., and Airman 3-c Lloyd C. White, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. White Sr. of 431 Cherry St. The wedding took place Dec. 30 at the home of the bride's parents.

The bride chose for her wedding a pastel pink suit trimmed with poodle fur. She carried a cascade bouquet of white carnations tied with white ribbon streamers.

Attending the couple were Mr. and Mrs. John Elliott of Texas.

Mrs. White is a graduate of the Laredo Junior College. Airman White entered service in October, 1951, and received his basic training at Sampson Air Force Base in New York. He was stationed at Laredo Air Force Base until leaving for overseas duty in Korea Jan. 18. The couple will reside in Marion after he returns from service.

Airman White has two other brothers in the Air Force, Airman 1/c Wallace C. White Jr., who left Jan. 20 for Japan, and Airman 3-c Roger L. White, stationed at Keesler Air Force Base in Mississippi.

—:—

Dessert preceded the program hour at the monthly meeting of the Marion Association of University Women Tuesday evening in the YMCA. Presiding at the table, attractively decorated with a centerpiece of red and gold flowers, were Mrs. Harry Jacobs, president, and Miss Ruth Kleinmaier, program chairman.

Speaker for the program was Mrs. K. D. Seiter of Newark, who reviewed "The Traitor and the Spy," by Thomas Flexner.

Miss Kleinmaier presented Miss Lisolotte Kaufmann, a young woman from Germany who is in the United States under the sponsorship of the Educational Exchange Program of German Women Leaders and the Women's Bureau of the U. S. Department of Labor. She is spending some time in Marion under the sponsorship of the Marion Altrusa Club.

In her review Mrs. Seiter gave a character sketch of Benedict Arnold, Peggy Shippen and John Andre. Their story, in which the elements of greed and heroism, loyalty and ambition, passion and frivolity, are combined, culminated in the classic treason of American History.

The author has presented the facts of the three lives in a powerful and graphic style. Shorn of legend, the conspirators emerge from his pages as from life, colorful and real. The book, published in late November, has been acclaimed by critics not only for its scholarship but also its high style.

The next meeting will be Feb. 16 at the YMCA and at this time Allen Schmuller, psychologist in the public schools, will be a guest speaker.

—:—

Plans were made to hold a bake sale and bazaar Saturday, Jan. 30, when Zenith Temple No. 144, Order of Pythian Sisters of LaRue, met Monday evening. A contribution was made to the March of Dimes.

—:—

Plans were made for a membership tea to be held Sunday at the Elks parlors, at a meeting of the Marion Chapter, National Secretaries Association, Tuesday evening at the monthly dinner meeting at Hotel Harding. Places were marked with date books monogrammed with "NSA."

Mrs. J. R. Dixon, chairman, Miss Anne Dennis, Mrs. Gyles Lynch and Mrs. Warren Seiter are in charge of the tea to be held from 3 to 5. Miss Elizabeth Haberman was appointed treasurer to fill the unexpired term of Mrs. Robert Hyams who is moving to Paris, Ill.

The monthly bulletin published by the chapter was re-named "The Ribbonette." The cover design will consist of two typewriter spools, one on the left hand corner and the other in the right hand corner with the unwinding ribbon spelling out the name. The title and cover design were submitted by Miss Donna Swartz. Miss Gladys Greene, chairman, Mrs. Eleanor Smith and Miss Swartz are in charge of a money raising project and pink elephant sale to be sponsored by the chapter.

Announcement was made of plans for a home for retired secretaries to be sponsored by the National Secretaries Association, said to be the world's largest association for women in one profession. The home also will serve as a vacation resort for secretaries still active in the business world. The announcement is being made by Mrs. Lilyan Miller, president of the national organization. Funds for the Resort-Home have been raised through national and local projects sponsored by 300 chapters of the association.

Hostess gifts for the February meeting will be provided by Miss Elizabeth Haberman and Mrs. John Rife.

Handcuff U.S. Attorney

Finn Twins Back in Jail After Tussle With Law

LOS ANGELES (AP) — The embattled Irish wins, George and Charles Finn, are back in jail today after another flamboyant brush with the federal government during which they handcuffed the United States attorney and threw officialdom into an uproar.

The "Flying Finns," former Air Force pilots, have been having legal trouble with the government for more than a year in connection with their claims to ownership of a $70,000 war surplus C46 transport plane.

The unpredictable 38-year-old twins yesterday handcuffed U. S. Atty. Laughlin E. Waters in an attempted "citizen's arrest" as he came out of the Biltmore Hotel, where he had addressed the Los Angeles Bar Assn.

They accused him of "conspiracy against the rights of citizens and deprivation of rights under cover of the law." They said he had been giving them the "brushoff" and refused to discuss with them the government's seizure of the plane they purchased a year ago from the Bakersfield, Calif., school district, which had used it for a mechanical training course.

Events that followed read like the script of a comic opera.

"Before I knew what was happening they had snapped a handcuff on my right wrist," Waters said. George Finn then snapped the other handcuff to his own right wrist, while Charles called police.

"We're not going to have any part of this," police officers said when they arrived and recognized Waters. But the U.S. attorney for southern California demanded that he be taken to the central police station and the police agreed to furnish transportation.

Once at the station things really began to happen. Police Inspector James Lawrence demanded that the Finns release Waters.

"We know our rights," the Finns answered. "We've been ignored long enough. We're starting to fight back now."

Police Chief William H. Parker shrugged: "This beats anything I ever saw. I don't know what it's all about."

"People can't go around arresting the U. S. attorney in our city," said Jack Irwin, acting mayor.

The Finns and Waters, trailed by officials, reporters and photographers, went to the offices of Dist. Atty. S. Ernest Roll and discussed the situation in detail. Waters went free, of course, and the twin brothers were taken before the U.S. commissioner and arraigned on a charge of assaulting a federal officer, then jailed in lieu of $10,000 felony bail.

The Finns' difficulties with the government began when federal authorities told them they had no right to purchase the transport plane, which had been condemned for future flying service. The twins ignored the government and a year ago flew the plane to an isolated field near Death Valley. They were arrested but the case against them collapsed because the government couldn't prove which of the brothers actually had flown the plane from Bakersfield.

The plane since has been impounded at Nellis Air Force Base, Nevada, and the twins have been trying futilely to regain it.

The Finn brothers, who spend much of their time reading law books, are still confident. "We've done nothing wrong," they told newsmen.

Said Waters: "I must admit I was a bit scared of what they might do."

Two Minor Traffic Accidents Reported

Two minor accidents were reported this morning by city police. The state patrol and sheriff's office reported no accidents on county highways.

Minor damage resulted to cars driven by Gertrude Ferriman of 708 E. Center St. and Dwight F. Foreman, 46, of 734 Windsor St. in a collision at the corner of E. Center and State Sts. at 10:43 a.m. yesterday.

Cars driven by Delman L. Swearingen, 25, of 1049 Davids St. and George Lacket of 259 Leader St. received minor damage when they collided at 3:40 p.m. yesterday in an alley off of Leader St. near the General Excavator plant.

2 To Seek Nomination To Committee Positions

Two more Marionites seeking posts of central committeemen have filed petitions of candidacy with the Marion County Board of Elections.

They are J. W. Llewellyn of 212 St. James St., seeking the Republican post from Precinct 5-C, and W. W. Williams of 619 Oak St., seeking the Democratic post from Precinct 2-C.

Ohio To Defend Axle-Mile Tax At Conference

Georgia Meeting Set; Lausche Has Aid of New York Governor

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Ohio goes to the mat tomorrow in defense of its new axle tax on trucks.

Gov. Frank J. Lausche and a handful of Ohio officials face a dozen irate southern states at a meeting in Atlanta, Ga.

In Lausche's corner is Gov. Thomas E. Dewey of New York. That's because truckers reportedly have made Ohio and New York their No. 1 and No. 2 targets. New York has a new truck tax somewhat similar to Ohio's.

Cast in the role of referee is the Executive Committee of the National Governors Conference. The conference has endorsed the principle of taxing trucks on the basis of weight and distance traveled as a fair method of getting money from users to build adequate highways. Lausche is a member of the nine-man Executive Committee.

Outcome of the new battle of Atlanta is important to both governors. Satisfactory agreements might turn the tide running strongly against the new truck taxes and enhance the governors' political positions.

Dewey, twice the Republican presidential nominee, still has his eyes on the White House in the opinion of some. Lausche, a Democrat and first Ohio governor to seek a fifth term, has been mentioned frequently of late as a prospect for high national office in 1956.

The southerners threaten to end reciprocity unless Ohio agrees to exempt their trucks from its new tax. Under reciprocity, truckers who pay license fees in their home states avoid similar levies in other states. An end to reciprocity would force Ohio truckers to pay the tag fees of each state they enter. Truckers claim it would wreck their business.

Lausche insists the axle tax, effective last Oct. 1, is not subject to exemptions. He says it would be unfair to tax Ohio truckers for their use of Buckeye highways without taxing trucks from other states.

Opposition to the tax has mounted until it appears at the showdown stage. Besides the southern threat, Ohio's truck tax is beleaguered by a U.S. District Court suit, a possible strike by AFL teamsters, congressional inquiry and revenues falling far short of the estimated yield needed for new highways.

Lausche blames the truckers for much of the opposition that developed force even before Ohio's 1953 Legislature could enact the new tax. Lausche called for a weight-distance tax. The Republican-dominated Legislature put it on an axle-mile basis for easier reckoning.

It costs trucks with more than two axles from ½ to 2½ cents a mile, depending on the number of axles, to travel Ohio highways Ohio's truck weight limit is 78,000 pounds. Truckers claim the new tax costs them $4 to $40 more a day to operate. Without reciprocity, they claim a trip outside Ohio could cost some $800 extra.

Tax Commissioner John W. Peck of Cincinnati, Ohio reciprocity board chairman, says the new law is vague on the board's authority. Peck and other board members with Ohio tax experts make up Lausche's Atlanta party. The other board members are Robert L. Moulton of Galion, public utilities commission chairman, and Atty. Gen. C. William O'Neill of Marietta.

Governors conference Executive Committee members besides Lausche are: Chairman Dan Thornton of Colorado, William S. Beardsley of Iowa, John Lodge of Connecticut, John S. Fine of Pennsylvania, Johnston Murray of Oklahoma, Robert F. Kennon of Louisiana, James F. Byrnes of South Carolina and Lawrence W. Weatherby of Kentucky.

Virginia and Kentucky already have withdrawn exemption from the public utility taxes for Ohio trucks. States threatening similar action include Georgia, Alabama, Florida, Louisiana, Mississippi, North Carolina, South Carolina, Tennessee, Nebraska, Oklahoma and Texas.

Truckers from Ohio, Michigan, Indiana, Illinois, Connecticut and New York seek a court order to prevent collection of Ohio's new truck tax. They failed to get a temporary restrainer pending disposition of the suit.

Congressman William H. Ayres, Akron Republican seeking a third term, urged the investigation. He said Ohio's new tax could "seriously injure" the trucking industry.

Some 10,000 truck owner-drivers in 13 central states are poised to strike if they must pay the axle tax. Most of them are teamsters. The union claims franchised trucking firms who lease the rigs of owner-drivers should pay the tax. The companies are seeking a solution to the dispute. Lausche warned that "law and order" would prevail on Ohio highways during any strike.

A strike could put franchised carriers in a tight spot. Lausche has asked Utilities Chairman Moulton to check requirements for carriers to provide service under their state franchises to operate. Many carriers lease most of their trucks rather than own them. A strike would cripple the public service of such carriers. That might endanger their franchises, officials assert.

Deadline for payment of first quarter axle taxes fell Wednesday but totals are incomplete. Officials said receipts apparently fell far short of estimates. Tax sponsors figured the yield at nearly 20 million dollars annually.

Officials hinted that insufficient revenues might endanger a half billion dollar bond issue approved by voters to speed construction of arterial highways. A special session of the Legislature last week authorized 82 millions in bonds for a starter.

FARMHOUSE WRAPPED IN FLAMES. Only a small portion of this farmhouse is visible as flames and smoke envelope the structure in a fire which left an elderly couple homeless near Utica, N. Y. Lack of water facilities to combat the blaze hampered firemen, and the building was leveled within an hour. No one was injured.

200 Over Last Year

903 Entries Received For Marion Dog Show

Marion's fourth annual all-breed dog show, which has grown steadily in size each year, will be the biggest ever this year.

A total of 903 dogs — more than 200 more than last year — are entered in this year's show scheduled for Sunday, Jan. 31, at the Coliseum, according to Damon Guthery, chairman of the bench show committee.

Entries closed at midnight Monday. Guthery believes the large number of entries this year is due to the show date not conflicting with any other show in this section of the country, the larger premium list and the top judging panel.

DOGS FROM 20 states are entered. Largest single breed entry comes in the working group where 94 Boxers have been entered. Making that group the largest one with 258 entries are also 48 collies and 26 Doberman Pinschers. Seven other breeds are represented in the group.

Fifteen different breeds of dogs totaling 195 entries are included in the sporting group which is made up mainly of 58 Cocker Spaniels, 33 Irish Setters and 32 Weimaraners. A total of 56 Dachsshunds and 26 beagles head the list of 11 breeds in the hound group which contains 112 entries.

The terrier group includes 117 entries. Its 12 different breeds are led by 30 Scottish Terriers, 19 miniature Schnauzers and 15 Kerry blue terriers. In the toy group are included 36 Chihauhuas 25 Pomeranians and 19 Pugs. That group is made up of 11 breeds and 121 entries. All nine breeds are represented in the non-sporting group with the bulk of its 100 entries consisting of 24 bulldogs, 20 miniature and 15 standard poodles and 20 Boston terriers.

—:—

GUTHREY ANNOUNCED that due to the large number of entries, judging would begin at 9 a.m. and there would be eight judging rings. At the same time, he announced the times for the various spotlight features of the show.

He said all class judging is set up to be completed by 5:30 p.m. Junior showmanship boys and girls classes will be judged at 3:30 p.m., with the best junior showman to be selected at 5 p.m.

The parade of champiin dogs is set for 5:30 p.m. while the presentation of the Laddie Boy memorial award to the best of breed airedale is scheduled for 6 p.m. Immediately following the pair of spotight features, group judging will begin.

Best in show judging is to be completed by 8 p.m.

THE NORTHERN Ohio Scottie Terrier Club, which is holding its annual speciality show in conjunction with the local show here, has 30 entries. Some of the top Scotties in this area are entered in the show. Heywood Hartley of Richmond, Va., is to judge the breed

A total of 756 prizes are being offered at this year's show. The best in show cash and trophy awards carry a value of $250. The winning boy and girl in the junior showmanship classes will receive trophies, while ribbons and rosettes as well as trophies and other awards will go to group winners.

Taxes

Eisenhower thinks we can have tax reductions, the people generally should benefit."

Eisenhower said the program he proposed, in its first year, would relieve individuals of 585 million dollars in taxes and corporations of 630 millions.

McCormack added his "present inclination" is not to vote to extend present rates on corporations and excises. Eisenhower urged Congress to cancel three billion dollars in cuts in these fields, now set automatically for April 1, and to prevent losses in revenue from other excises not involved in the April 1 changes.

Corporate Cuts

Rep. Kean (R-NJ), fourth-ranking Ways and Means Committee Republican and usually an administration supporter, predicted there would be "at least slight reductions in corporation income taxes and considerable reductions in some of the higher excises."

Rep. Jenkins (R-Ohio), second-ranking GOP committee member, said in a separate interview, "I think we'll cut corporation taxes some and I think we'll cut excises."

The corporate income tax rate, now 52 per cent, is due to drop to 47 per cent on April 1 unless Congress changes the law.

Sen. George (D-Ga), senior Democrat on the Senate Finance Committee, and others have suggested a 50 per cent rate, which would reduce revenue by almost a billion dollars annually.

Exemption Increase

McCormack said he approved of a move by all 10 Democrats on the tax-writing Ways and Means Committee to write into the revision program an increase of $100 in personal income tax exemptions for each taxpayer and each dependent.

All 15 committee Republicans voted against this proposal yesterday, stopping it for the time being. But McCormack and Rep. Boggs (D-La), sponsor of the move, said they expected the fight to be renewed on the House floor.

Lausche, 6 State Officials Start for Truck Tax Meeting

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Gov. Frank J. Lausche and six other state officials left today by National Guard plane to attend a truck tax conference in Atlanta, Ga.

The plane with more than a half dozen newsmen in the party took off at 9:46 a. m.

State officials accompanying the governor included Adj. Gen. Albert Henderson of Willoughby, Robert L. Moulton of Galion, public utilities commission chairman; John W. Peck of Cincinnati, state tax commissioner; Atty. Gen. C. William O'Neill; Addison Dewey, state tax expert and U. C. Felty, highway safety director. Moulton, Peck and O'Neill comprise Ohio's reciprocity board.

In Atlanta, the governor will seek solution of a dispute by a dozen southern states over Ohio's new axle tax on trucks. The southern states want the new tax included in reciprocity agreement but Lausche has refused.

ters would wrangle about three basic questions:

1. Reunification of East and West Germany — and how to do it.

2. An independence treaty for Austria.

3. A further conference on world tensions — and whether Chiang Kai-shek's Nationalists or Mao Tze-tung's Communists should represent the Far East in such a meeting.

Neither West nor East so far has shown any willingness to give ground on these issues.

Marion Ministers Plan Attendance at Pastors' Meetings

A number of ministers from Marion will join an expected 2,000 others from throughout the state next week in sessions of the Ohio Pastors' Convention, Monday through Thursday morning at Columbus. The Ohio Council of Churches has arranged a program which will include a dozen church and educational leaders, and hear the finals of the twenty-ninth annual Prince of Peace Declamation Contest. With exception of communion service and annual Fellowship Supper, sessions will be held in Memorial Hall.

The speakers' roster includes Rev. Ralph Sockman, pastor of Christ Church, New York City, William G. Pollard, noted physicist of Oak Ridge, Tenn., ordained a deacon in the Episcopal Church last year, Hornell Hart, professor of sociology at Duke University, Canon John M. Burgess of Washington Cathedral, Washington, D.C., Nels F. S. Ferre, professor philosophical theology at Vanderbilt University, Rev. Eugene Carson Blake, clerk of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the USA, Rev. Halford E. Luccock, professor of homiletics at Yale Divinity School 25 years, Perry E. Gresham, new president of Bethany College, and Rev. Charles Ray Goff, pastor of the famed Chicago Temple who will speak at the Fellowship Supper at the Ohio Union on Ohio State University campus.

On Tuesday morning, communion will be administered in First Congregational Church with Rev. Boynton Merrill, pastor, officiating. Music for the supper meeting Tuesday night will be by the OSU Men's Glee Club, and Capital Univesity Men's Glee Club Monday night.

Rate Hearing Postponed

WASHINGTON (AP)— The power commission has postponed from Feb. 24 until March 2 a hearing involving a proposal of Ohio Fuel Gas Co., Columbus, Ohio, to increase rates by about $1,419,000 a year.

The commission said the postponement was asked by attorneys for Columbia Gas System, of which Ohio Fuel is a subsidiary.

Luis Firpo was the first Argentinian ever to fight for the world's heavyweight championship.

Moose Lodge Members Open Polio Efforts

Joining the Marion County March of Dimes Campaign is Marion Lodge No. 889, Loyal Order of Moose, whose members are again sponsoring the "Mile of Dimes."

"Mile of Dimes" tables were placed at Main and Center Sts. at noon today to receive contributions. They are located on E. Center St. in front of the Marion County and National City Banks.

Donald E. Bassler is chairman of the committee in charge. Lodge members will be in charge of the tables which will be out today until 9 p.m. and Saturday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday from 1 to 5:30 p.m.

Last year contributions amounted to around $300. This year, it is hoped the amount will be increased, J. P. McGary, secretary of the club, said today.

YMCA Must Pay Taxes on Property, State Board Rules

The Marion YMCA must pay back taxes on the land on which its new building stands, the state board of tax appeals ruled yesterday.

The YMCA had applied for the remission of taxes due on the land for the years 1951 and 1952 and asked that taxes for 1953 not be filed.

But the state board ruled it was without power to grant the request because the new YMCA building was not completed during the taxing periods involved. It cannot rule on the eligibility of exemption until after a building is completed.

Taxes on the property amounted to $522 for each of the 1951 and 1952 taxing years and taxes for 1953 were at approximately the same level, a Y spokesman reported today.

Since the building has now been completed the YMCA can be exempted from taxes as a charitable institution doing charitable work. The spokesman reported the Y has the privilege of appealing the decision yesterday and must still file for the exemptions. No decision has been made on the possible appeal.

Morral, Prospect Youths Win Ratings In Speaking Event

Morral and Prospect youths received gold and silver ratings in a district FFA extemporaneous speaking contest won by a Marysville youth at Delaware Willis High School last night.

Virgil Steurer of the Morral Chapter, whose instructor is A. J. Bishop, received a gold rating and a silver rating went to Allen Ruppert of the Prospect chapter. His instructor is John Watkins.

Alvin Stierhoff of the Marysville chapter was judged winner of the speaking contest. He will speak in the state contest in March at Ohio State University.

His alternate is Jerry Ryan of Union School chapter. Three other youths receiving gold ratings were LeRoy Kramer of the Scioto Valley chapter; and Edwin Goodwin of the Byhalia chapter.

Silver ratings, in addition to Ruppert, were awarded to Eugene Levering of the Cardington chapter. Dale Pendleton of the Elm Valley chapter; Lee McCafferty of the Richwood chapter; and Jim Price of the Raymond chapter.

A total of ten contestants from the four counties making up District Eight took part in the contest. They were chosen in local contests held at schools recently. Marion, Delaware, Morrow and Union Counties are included in the Eighth District.

he could cut the budget even more, but he knows what he can get away with."

"Everyone knows we have got to have economic strength," Short commented.

In the budget for the fiscal year which begins July 1, the President stepped up spending plans for the Air Force as well as for air arms of the Navy and Marines.

These increases were more than offset by plans for cutbacks in manpower and spending of the Army and Navy. As a result, recommended outlays were held to about 37½ billions compared with about 41½ estimated for the current fiscal year, which ends June 30.

Douglas, a World War II Marine, said it "seems unwise to cut our ground forces this much."

The budget indicated that the Army would drop three of its present 20 divisions and some 335,000 men and the Marine Corps would lose about 35,000 of its present 250,000 force.

He is a member of the Masonic order, the Knights of Pythias, Farm Bureau and Waldo Lutheran Church.

Work of Alcoholics Anonymous Told To Marion Kiwanis

At the Marion Kiwanis Club weekly luncheon meeting Thursday noon at Hotel Harding, Merle Wise, "Alcoholics Anonymous," told of the work which is being done in Marion and vicinity by that group.

Mr. Wise told his audience that Alcoholics Anonymous, which has been under way locally 18 years, has a national membership of about 250,000. He told of many of his personal experiences since joining AA and explained that each person who belongs always has the hope of helping someone else.

He said that Alcoholics Anonymous is more that not drinking, stressing that it should and must bring about a change in the way of life of the person. He reviewed a set of rules that are followed

He explained that each and every person should live one day at a time and do the right thing each day.

Formally inducted into the club as new members were Smith H. Witter and Marvin Ludwig. They were inducted by Arthur Busch, former lieutenant governor.

A visiting Kiwanian was H. H. Wyss of Delaware. Guests included C. O. Miller of Tiffin, Dwight Howard of Mt. Vernon, Malcolm Shupe of Mansfield, Dr. Charles Taylor of Los Angeles, Calif., Walter Guthrie, William Hale, William Swearingen, Rev. Walter Eyster and Chase Franz.

8 Die as Navy Plane Hits Peak in Hawaii

HONOLULU (AP) — A Navy P2V Neptune patrol bomber with eight men aboard crashed in flames on a cloud-covered mountainside last night and rescue teams found no survivors, the Navy said today.

The plane, part of a Japan-based squadron returning from patrol duty in the western Pacific, was en route from Kwajalein in the Marshall Islands when it got off its course for Barbers Point Naval Air Station, a few miles south of the crash.

A spokesman said the plane apparently hit the mountain headon.

Although the Indian command did not inform the pro-Red captives of the battle of words raging over them, they probably heard of it over a grapevine from Red headquarters.

There was a possibility the Communists ordered them to stage a sitdown strike in their compound to prove the Red point that they should not be released.

But it seemed more likely that they simply would march north when Indian troops abandon them.

Angus Breeders Elect New Officers

Don Holland of Cardington and P. D. Lockwood of 509 King Ave. were elected president and vice president, respectively, of the Marion County Aberdeen Angus Breeder Association when the group met recently at the county extension office.

Carl Murphy of Morral was elected secretary-treasurer.

Directors elected were Kenneth Barber of Ashley and Rowe Littleton of Kenton with terms expiring in 1956 and Lloyd Matteson of near Richwood with term expiring in 1955.

Holland was also chosen to represent the county association on the state board.

The group also made preliminary plans for a banquet March 6 at the Claridon School and its annual picnic and field day at Holland's farm on June 27.

The Marion county association includes Marion and surrounding counties.

Budget

$3,300,000,000 in the next 5½ months."

"High corporation profits in 1953 are a major factor in reducing the size of the prospective deficit," Douglas said in an interview. "Nevertheless, this estimate is much too optimistic. It is simply incredible that they can cut the deficit down by 6½-billion dollars in less than six months."

Douglas, a former economics professor, also took issue with Eisenhower's statement that estimates of receipts for the next fiscal year "are based upon the continuation of business conditions, personal income and corporation profits at substantially the present high levels."

Douglas said the budget contains no hint of any administration program should the forecast prove wrong.

"If there should be a serious drop in business conditions," he said, "not only will that increase the deficit at existing rates of taxation but it will raise the further question as to whether we should not give a stimulus to employment by increasing the personal exemption for income tax purposes and by some positive program of public works."

Republicans generally went along with the President's endorsement of a tax revision plan to remove alleged inequities at an eventual cost of about two billion dollars in revenue. Some Democrats claimed the plan favored corporations and big stockholders, and talked about broadening the reduction to include all taxpayers.

Realistic Goal

By George Sokolsky

The 1930's in the economic field and the 1940's in foreign affairs are mental blocks in the 1950's. We employ terms which no longer fit, like Fascist, which currently, in the United States, has no meaning. There is a lingering opposition to colonialism, which is no longer a problem; it is rather that the nationalistic emergence of countries in Southeast Asia has so profoundly altered the balance of power that the formulation of a policy becomes very difficult for the United States.

SOKOLSKY

Last Summer, an editorial in "The Manchester Guardian" began with these sentences:

"When London lost the diplomatic initiative as the result of Sir Winston Churchill's illness, this passed to the two other centers — Washington and Moscow. In the last ten days all eyes have been on Washington. It was almost forgotten that the next moves might come from Moscow."

-:-

THE INITIATIVE was seized by Stalin in 1943 at the Teheran conference and has never been relinquished by Soviet Russia. President Eisenhower in his "State of the Union" message said:

"That precious intangible, the initiative, is becoming ours. Our policy, not limited to mere reaction against crises provoked by others, is free to develop along lines of our choice not only abroad but at home. As a major theme for American policy during the coming year, let our joint determination be to hold this initiative and to use it."

The American policy of restoring the military and economic power of West Germany and Japan has been so sound that these countries today represent stabilizing forces in Europe and Asia.

In taking all the risks involved in the rebuilding of West Germany and Japan, the United States has been courageous and farsighted.

Public opinion, in this country, has not always supported these programs because of the hang-over of ideas concerning Germany and Japan from the 1940's.

-:-

IN INTERNATIONAL affairs, neither allies nor enemies are permanent; they are interchangeable, depending upon the shifing winds of self-interest. Nor is self-interest always intelligent: sometimes, it is a responseto immediate stresses.

Self-interest can be dangerously temporary when no though is given to consequences which seem so remote at the moment but come at us swiftly as the years pass.

Thus, we suddenly discover ourselves working with Franco's Spain that we accused of all felonies and misdemeanors not too long ago. It makes lots of sense to associate with Franco in the 1950's.

For one thing, it balances the egotism of France, which has become politically senile in its understandable fear of war, having suffered so much from war and still being involved in it.

For another, it makes our defenses in Latin America stronger despite the Russian penetration in that area. The alliance with Spain represents a full victory for our side.

SIMILARLY, we shall have to make friends with Peron in the Argentine even if no one in this country likes Peron's way of doing things.

The issue is not Peron's habits but his value to the United States. As long as Moscow is making deep inroads in such Latin American countries as Guatemala, Honduras, British Guiana, Colombia, and Venezuela, the United States must build power in Brazil, Argentine, Chile, Peru, Uruguay and the Dominican Republic.

These countries must balance with military and economic power the geographical closeness to the Panama Canal and the United States of those countries which are moving into the Soviet universal state.

These are realities for which prejudices cannot be substituted.

So we come to the question of the pact with Pakistan, which is being impeded by a sentimental attitude toward Nehru of India. A line of strong military states, with Pakistan, Iran and Turkey as central points, along the southern borders of Russia, would hamper the growth of the Soviet universal state.

THE PACT with Pakistan is therefore a realistic recognition of a soundly defensible area, holding Russia in check and embarassing the growth of a Chinese hegemony over the sub-continent of Asia.

It is undoubtedly embarrassing to Nehru that the United States should prefer Pakistan to India, but from our standpoint it makes more sense to do business with the Moslem than with the Hindu. We shall get farther in our objectives that way—the principal objective being so to conduct our foreign policy that we are not again involved in a war not of our choice.

Lewis' Dream

By Victor Riesel

They met quietly. They talked quietly. But their decisions may explode on many fronts. For two and a half hours, John L. Lewis, the graying giant who has made so much history baiting so many presidents, played host to husky, pile-driving David Beck, before whom lies so much labor history.

RIESEL

Early Monday morning, there in Lewis' warm top floor headquarters, before the king-sized fireplace built to match John L.'s imagination, these two powerful men planned, among other things, to take on another president — Dwight D. Eisenhower.

Closeted with only one top aide each, Lewis and Beck, leaders of almost 2,000,000 workers who can make this land stand still, talked of giving labor "a direction."

They talked, too, of cleaning house, of swooping down on the nation's waterfronts and wiping out crook and Communist alike.

-:-

THEY TALKED mostly of a broad, heavyweight (but, for the time being, informal) entente of their two unions, the coal diggers and the teamsters — unions with treasuries which, together, total close to 90 million dollars.

They saw that labor is split wide open — and racing in several directions at once.

Some of it, led by Walter Reuther, is fueling the leftwing of the Democratic party. Another section, led by George Meany, is independent — working with Democrats and "Dewey Republicans" alike.

Others, especially those in the AFL construction trades department are close to Republican national committeemen — the GOP political machine itself.

And the powerful CIO Steelworkers Union, led by David McDonald, is playing a lone game, working quietly, off-the-record, with Vice-President Dick Nixon and the White House through McDonald's good friend, young Max Raab, the little dynamo of Sherman Adams' office.

-:-

IN THE MIDST of all this swirling, "directionless" strength are John Lewis and Dave Beck. Lewis, in keeping with his tradition, is still the maverick.

Beck, still a new president with a sprawling union of many powerful local chieftains unaccustomed to dealing with a central authority in a centralized national union headquarters, is just about ready to move on a national front.

As they talked, it was apparent that they shared some very sharp differences with the men who lead the AFL and CIO. Lewis and Beck just don't like the policies of George Meany and Walter Reuther.

So Lewis and Beck, with seething strength in their hands, talked of working together — and slowly bringing others into their bloc to bargain with the White House, with President Eisenhower himself, with Congress and with the many state legislatures.

-:-

THEY WERE concerned over many developments. Pragmatists and realists both, they know they have to clean up the rackets which have seeped into some circles. Those plans were discussed.

They know, too, that many investigations are coming, especially into the operation of pension and welfare funds — which run into hundreds of millions of dollars in their two fields alone.

No one can point a finger at these moneys handled by either Lewis or Beck. But they know where the dirt is — and that all will be contaminated if the muck isn't raked and swept out. Those plans,too, were discussed.

From their conversation, it was soon apparent that Lewis' dream of a powerful third federation of labor to compete with the AFL and CIO would, for the moment, have to be dreamt alone. Dave Beck is not now planning to leave the AFL. He will buck Meany on many issues, but is not quitting the federation, it was indicated.

Furthermore, word had come from David McDonald that the Steelworkers were staying in the CIO. If their quarrel with Walter Reuther finally burns so hot that they have to leave, they will stay independent.

-:-

McDONALD'S union newspaper, "Steel Labor," ignored the CIO's last convention. McDonald has continued to needle Reuther. He has now visited the 14th U.S. Steel Corp. plant on a good will tour with Ben Fairless, company president, while Reuther is whip-lashing big business. However, the Steelworkers show no signs of preparing their rank and file to walk out on CIO.

Morning Sounds

By Hal Boyle

NEW YORK (AP)—Manhattan has its own morning sounds that set it apart, just as a small town does . . . or a farm in the country, where alarm clocks wear feathers and boss a barnyard.

HAL BOYLE

But the dawn sounds here are more mixed in mood . . . the wail of a fire or police sirren stirring a fear-thrill in the city heart . . . the clank of a garbage can against a sanitation truck . . . the wall-vibrating snore of the man next door . . . and a cheery sound we miss the most, now that it is gone, the "cloppity-clop-clop" of the 6 o'clock horse.

Let me tell you about that horse, and what he came too mean in a big tenement city, and I'm sorry I can't give you his real name, because I don't know it.

One summer morning several years ago, shortly after we had moved into an apartment in a big 15-story brick hut by the East River, I woke to see my wife standing by the window with an alarm clock in her hand.

"Who are you going to drop that clock on?" I asked. "Don't you know it's against the law to bean anybody from a high window in New York?"

"Don't always talk so silly, Rover," said Frances. "I'm waiting to set this clock. It stopped during the night."

"What are you going to set it by — the morning star?"

"No," she said. "I'm going to set it by the 6 o'clock horse."

"What in the world is that?"

"Come and see."

I yawned my way to the window. A few moments later there sounded a distant "cloppity-clop-clop." It grew louder. Then around the corner came a small elderly horse, driven by a small elderly man sitting atop a small elderly ice wagon shaded by a faded small elderly beach umbrella.

As the little dark sorrel animal and the creaking vehicle passed beneath our window, Frances set the clock and said:

"That's the 6 o'clock horse. Haven't you heard him before? He's never more than a minute or two off any morning.

"He makes such a cute sound. And he looks so patient and nice. Sometimes that old man leans over and hits him with a little stick, but the 6 o'clock horse doesn't pay any attention to him. He always goes at just that same pace . . . Listen to him."

"Cloppity - clop - clop, cloppity-clop-clop," rang the hoofs of the 6 o'clock horse.

—:—

After that I heard him many a morning. In New York you aren't allowed to keep even a Shetland pony in an apartment; you have to fall in love with other people's horses. And the 6 o'clock horse became a pleasant part of our lives.

In summer he hauled ice, in winter wood. But every day he was punctual.

"He is just as punctual going back in the evenings," said Frances. "He comes by at exactly 5:30. I wish I had married a man as punctual as that little horse."

"Cloppity -clop-clop" — through the years, through shower and sunshine, through fog and mist and snow. Wagon and man grew older, and so did the 6 o'clock horse. But he trotted at the same steady pace — "cloppity-clop-clop."

One night I made plans to get up early the next morning and take down some carrots and sugar lumps for the 6 o'clock horse. But I overslept, and awoke to hear his hoofbeats already fading away, and somehow after that I never managed to translate my good intention into a deed.

The other morning I awakened early and lazily watched the clock's hand crawl past 6 o'clock. No "cloppity-clop-clop." At 6:15 I got up and went to the window and looked down. The street was bare in the cold dawn. No horse. I turned and saw Frances looking at me.

"I wondered when you'd miss him," she said. "He hasn't been by for weeks."

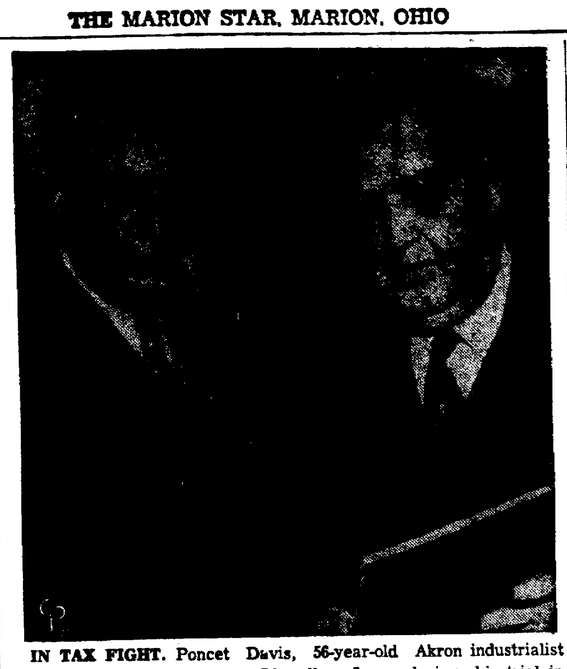
"What happened?"

"Nobody in the neighborhood knows," said Frances. "They all three were so old and looked so worn. Maybe the wagon just fell to pieces. . . or the old man died . . . or the little horse fell down and couldn't get up."

—:—

A brightness left the morning and every morning since then. There was such a braveness about that steady "cloppity-clop-clop" ... it was like losing something you never owned but felt in your heart belonged to you, a feeling you often have about small things that give a stability to your life in a big city.

This is my carrot . . . these my lumps of sugar . . . to the 6 o'clock horse . . . given, as many things in this world are, too late. . . and I think of this as I lie in my bed in the morning, listening for a "cloppity-clop-clop" . . . and hearing only the wail of a siren, the clank of a garbage can, the snore of the man next door.



IN TAX FIGHT. Poncet Davis, 56-year-old Akron industrialist (left), confers with attorney Llewellyn Luce during his trial in Cleveland federal court on charges of evasion of nearly $750,000 income taxes in four years. Davis denied any effort to bilk the government and said he has tried to settle up his back taxes. He is owner of the Robbins Tire and Rubber Co., with offices in Akron and a plant in Alabama.

Recruiter Lists Requirements For Enlistment With WAVES

Chief Petty Officer R. F. Schultz, local Navy recruiter, today listed facts about the WAVES in answer to the many questions being asked by young women of the county and area.

Women served with the Navy for the first time during World War I when they were enlisted as Yeoman (F) in the Naval Reserve, according to Chief Schultz. The enlisted women were known as Yeomanettes and their duties were stenographic.

Again in World War II, the need for women in the service to supplement the country's manpower was recognized and on July 30, 1942, President Roosevelt signed legislation authorizing the enlistment and commissioning of women in the U. S. Naval Reserve, Chief Schultz reported. The Women Accepted for Volunteer Emergency Service—from which WAVES is derived—were permitted to serve in shore billets within the continental limits of the United States only but two years later, legislation was passed to permit WAVES to serve overseas in Hawaii and Alaska.

The record established by the WAVES in World War II paved the way for passage in June, 1948, of the Womens Armed Services Integration Act, making women a permanent part of the Regular Navy and the Naval Reserve, Chief Schultz explained. Now women can make the Navy their career. The limitation of foreign duty has been removed and today WAVES are serving overseas in England, France, Norway, Germany, Japan, and Guam as well as Hawaii and Alaska.

Chief Schultz said WAVES have taken over many more jobs in the modern Navy of today and have equal rights as have the men of the Navy.

WAVES have been authorized to serve on board certain type vessels of the Navy. More information concerning it will be forthcoming as soon as it is available, Chief Schultz said.

Some of the qualifications for women to enlist in the WAVES include their being 18 to 26 years of age, high school graduate or equivalent and to be single without dependents, Chief Schultz, said.

For further information concerning WAVES, young women can contact the Navy recruiter in the Post Office building at Mansfield or in Marion on Wednesdays. He is here every Wednesday in the Courthouse from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m.

Deputy Foils Massacre of Dayton Family

DAYTON, Ohio (AP)—"Now I can go to the electric chair and won't have to worry about money."

Police say those were the words of Morgan Cousins, 30-year - old Dayton man after reportedly admitting hacking his grandmother to death, critically wounding his wife, stabbing his mother and attacking a cousin as she held an infant in her arms.

Cousins was captured yesterday by Dep. Sheriff Isaiah A. Spooner, who heard the screams of the women from across the street. Police credit the 46-year-old deputy with preventing a family massacre.

They say Cousins told them he wanted to kill his mother, Mrs. Lucy L. Cousins, 45, and his grandmother, Mrs. Addie Williams, 81, because they had been sick.

According to police, Cousins ran wild with a paring knife in his home. They say he stabbed his mother with it and, when the blade broke, grabbed a 14-inch butcher knife.

Cousins critically wounded his wife, Edith, 27, authorities say, when she tried to protect the grandmother. The cousin, Mrs. Lucy Guy, 22, was wounded when she fled from the house shielding her 9-month old daughter. The mother was reported in serious condition.

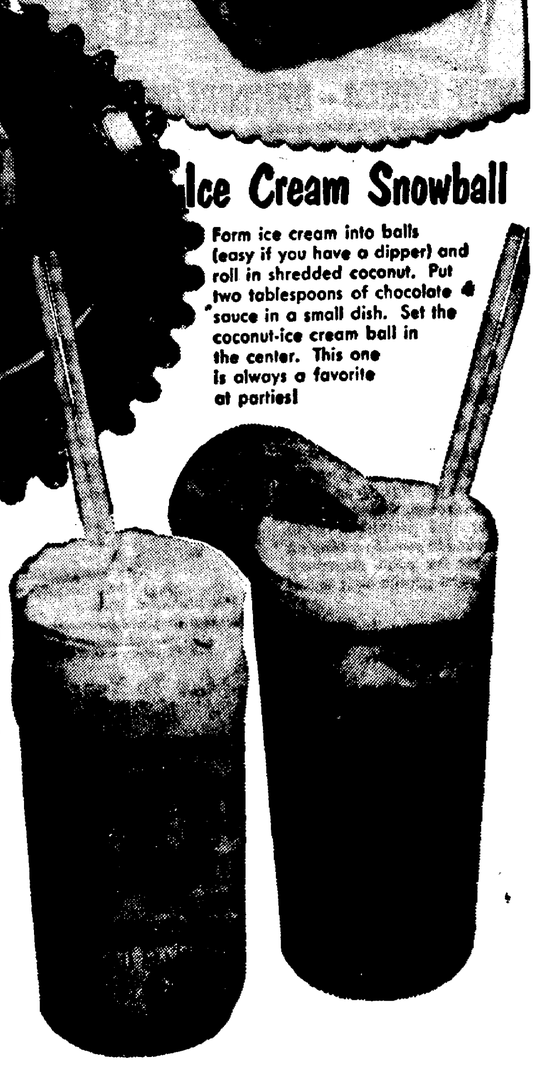
In any kind of weather, Ice Cream can be your best--and most easily prepared--treat!

Keep a half-gallon of Borden's handy at home!

Waffles with Ice Cream
Serve a dip of vanilla ice cream atop a hot waffle . . . and add jam or fresh-frozen fruit if you like. Wonderful both for breakfast and for midnight lunches! Just different enough to be exciting.

Ice Cream Snowball
Form ice cream into balls (easy if you have a dipper) and roll in shredded coconut. Put two tablespoons of chocolate sauce in a small dish. Set the coconut-ice cream ball in the center. This one is always a favorite at parties!



There's no closed season on these refreshing drinks!
Good any time of year is the Strawberry-Orange Frosted, shown at the right. For each serving, use two big scoops of Strawberry Ice Cream (or vanilla if you prefer) and one cup of fresh or frozen orange juice. Blend with egg beater or mixer. Serve in a tall glass with an orange slice. And as for sodas, the possibilities are endless. Use vanilla ice cream, your favorite fruit or chocolate syrup, and fill the glass with sparkling water. Or, even simpler, just ice cream and your favorite soft drink. You'll find teen-agers really go for sodas "made at home."

Ike Reduces Farm Outlay By 10 Per Cent

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower outlined a farm budget today proposing a 10 per cent reduction in funds for regular activities of the Agriculture Department, but forecasting a loss of nearly half a billion dollars in supporting prices of farm crops during the coming fiscal year.

In his budget report to Congress, the chief executive called for a total appropriation of $1,182,284,000 for rural electrification and farm loans, research, conservation, educational, marketing, school lunch and crop control activities during the fiscal year beginning next July 1. This was a reduction of $133,553,000 from funds appropriated for these same activities this year.

But the President predicted that the Commodity Credit Corp. — agency which finances price support programs—will lose $487,304,000 when it disposes of surplus crops at less than they cost the agency. Present record farm surplus stocks in the hands of the government total about 5½ billion dollars, and farm officials have predicted they may climb to 7½ billion a year from now.

Most of the proposed savings in regular activities—those apart from the handling of surpluses—were said to be possible as a result of a recent reorganization of the department involving some reduction in personnel, and recommendations that smaller amounts be provided for loans for rural electrification power projects and farm housing, and for grants for the school lunch program.

Marion K of C Keglers To Enter State Tourney

Several Knights of Columbus lodge members from here are planning to attend the annual K of C state bowling tournament in Cleveland which opens March 9.

Two teams will definitely compete and K of C members are hoping more will participate. Anyone desiring to take part is asked to contact Al LaValley or Bob McCollister.

The local teams will be bowling singles and doubles on March 20 and 21. The tourney runs for six weekends, winding up April 11.

BOUND OVER IN THEFT

OXFORD, Ohio (AP)—Robert Lee Baker, 39, captured here Tuesday by a Miami University football player after a purse snatching, was sentenced yesterday by Mayor M. D. Worley to 90 days in jail and fined $300 and costs. He pleaded guilty to petty larceny. Baker, who said he was on parole from the Ohio penitentiary, pleaded innocent to a charge of possession of burglary tools and was bound over to the Butler County grand jury.

Pork Steak Stacks Are Good With Vegetables

Pork shoulder steaks are one of the thriftiest pork buys. Topped with rice and vegetables., they are delicious. Serve this combination with hot buttered peas and even the hardest to please will be delighted.

Use:

4 pork shoulder steaks.
Salt, pepper, flour.
1 cup cooked rice (1-3 cup uncooked)
4 slices tomato (½ inch thick)
4 slices onion (¼ inch thick)
4 teaspoons chopped green pepper
Marjoram, thyme (optional)
1 can sliced mushrooms (optional.)

Trim a little fat from edges of the pork steaks and fry out in a large skillet. Remove pieces. Sprinkle steaks with salt and pepper; flour and brown in the hot fat. Remove steaks to a roasting pan.

On each steak, place ¼ cup cooked rice, 1 slice tomato, 1 slice onion and 1 teaspoon green pepper. Sprinkle with salt, pepper, marjoram and thyme. Top with well-drained mushrooms and add water to cover bottom of pan. Cover and bake at 350 degrees F. for 1 hour. Add more water as needed.

Baste steaks several times during cooking with liquid in bottom of pan. Serve with some of the drippings spooned over meat and vegetables. 4 servings.

Family Service Society Accepted By National Group

The Family Service Society of Marion County has been accepted for membership in the Family Service Association of America, according to word received from Clark W. Blackburn, general director of the association.

Membership is granted to a family agency after it attains certain standards, Mrs. Doris Maxwell, executive secretary of the local society, reported. Included among these standards are that an agency must have been in operation at least one year, and that it is meeting family casework needs of the community.

John Mauf, of the association's regional headquarters in Chicago, was in Marion in September making a personal evaluation. The association's main offices are located in New York City. More than 200 agencies are members.

Available to member agencies are resource materials and access to projects and experiences of other agencies. Agency personnel can attend institutes held annually in the various regions.

Member agencies have to reevaluate their programs periodically and must submit satisfactory yearly reports in order to maintain membership in the association.

GIs Assist Korean Soprano To Study Voice in America

LA SALLE, Ill. (AP)—A 20-year-old Korean girl whose soprano voice caught attention of American soldiers when she sang in battlefield chapels is at her new home in La Salle.

Kim Myung Ju is making her home with the Rev. and Mrs. Russell Kerr. Kerr is a Congregational clergyman who was an Air Force chaplain and had the girl in his choir in Korea.

Kim Myung Ju worked in a post exchange to obtain part of the money for her trip. The remainder came from sale of personal possessions and contributions from Korean churches and GIs from the 8th Fighter-Bimber Wing.

The young woman will enroll in the La Salle-Peru-Oglesby Junior College and later will transfer to the Chicago Conservatory of Music.

Officer Had Proof

DENVER (AP)—Louis E. Spohn, 69 argued in Municipal Court yesterday the light was green when he drove into the intersection.

Then Patrolman George Eberle played his trump — a photograph he had made at the time with colored film. The picture showed Spohn's car and also showed the light, bright red.

Judge Gerald McAuliffe decreed a $15 fine.

Army Sgt. John O. Young, son of Mr. and Mrs. Merle W. Young of near Marion, is enroute to the United States after serving in Korea with the 25th Infantry Division. Sgt. Young, holder of the Combat Infantryman Badge, was an assistant platoon sergeant with Company C of the division's 14th Infantry Regiment. A graduate of Pleasant High School, he was employed on the farm of his brother, George L. Young, prior to entering the service on Jan. 17, 1950. He first went into the Air Corp, taking his basic training at Lackland Air Force Base, Tex. He later was stationed at Biloxi, Miss., and in Puerto Rico for a year. Coming back from there to the United States, he immediately switched over to the Army, entering it in February, 1952, and arriving overseas a year later.

Ten-Cent Coffee Unfair To Jurors, Woman Says

HOUSTON (AP)—Ten-cent coffee is unfair to jurors, says the woman who operates the Criminal Courts Building cigar stand.

Mrs. Grace Taylor thinks she has worked out a plan to maintain her 5-cent coffee prices.

"It looks like I will lose money on every cup at 5 cents. But I recently raised the price of cigarettes a penny a pack and think that will make up the coffee losses."

She said many of her customers lose wages while on juries and "it wouldn't be fair to stick them a dime for a cup of coffee."

Finish House Hunting

HOUSTON (AP)—Actress Hedy Lamarr and her new husband, oilman W. Howard Lee, have finished house shopping.

The couple has leased a two-story brick mansion in Houston's exclusive River Oaks addition for $600 a month, unfurnished. They expect to move in from a Shamrock Hotel apartment about Feb. 1.

Ex-Marine Convicted In Atlanta Girl Slaying

ATLANTA (AP)—David G. Price, 19-year-old former Marine with a yen for "scarey comics," was convicted last night of the murder of a young club-footed woman.

A jury deliberated five hours before finding Price guilty of the mutilation murder of 22-year-old Betty Bagby in a wooded glade June 20. Superior Judge Walter C. Hendrix sentenced him to life imprisonment after the jury recommended mercy.

No New Funds In Budget for Ohio's Airports

Columbus, Portsmouth Projects Out Unless Congress Votes Aid

WASHINGTON (AP) — Unless Congress does something about it, there won't be any federal money for airports near Portsmouth and Columbus, Ohio, this year.

The President's budget, sent to Congress today, made no recommendations for funds for any new airport projects in the country.

Southern Ohioans have been trying to get federal matching funds so they could build an airport at the huge atomic project in the Portsmouth area.

Columbus has put up local money to expand its airport, "Port Columbus," and wants federal money, too.

Rep. Polk (D-Ohio), whose district includes the A-plant, said he would write President Eisenhower, informing him of what he considers the "great need" for an airport there.

Polk also said he would offer an amendment to the administration's appropriation bill, calling for the needed $400,000.

He was defeated on a similar amendment last year.

Rep. Jenkins (R-Ohio) said he, too, would do all he could to get money for the A-plant airport this year.

With respect to Port Columbus, Rep. Vorys (R-Ohio) said he was "very disappointed" at the lack of provision for federal aid.

"Federal aid to airports," he said, "is just as important as federal aid to roads. "I will take whatever action I can to get these funds for Port Columbus and any other airports that truly need them."

District Captains Named for March Against Polio

Thirteen volunteer district captains from Marion for the Mothers' March on Polio were named today by the four co-chairmen, Mrs. O. H. Gearhiser Jr., Mrs. John J. Dugan, Mrs. R. P. Wagner and Mrs. William Gracely.

"Each captain or co-captain," Mrs. Dugan pointed out, "is in charge of a school district and the complete organization of her workers. School districts "will be further divided into sections headed by lieutenants and then into block areas headed by block wardens. Each block will be broken down into 10 dwelling units so that each contact mother will be able to cover her area during the designated time," she said.

Captains shown seated left to right, are: Mrs. John Courtright Jr.., George Washington; Mrs. Abe Schoen, Vernon Heights Blvd.; Mrs. Robert Porter, Olney; Mrs. Clifton Wells, Silver Street; Mrs. Glenn Kellogg, Oakland Heights. Standing, left to right, are: Mrs. Carl Werley Jr., Mark Street; Mrs. Walter Kelsey, Vernon Heights School; Mrs. John Kantzer, North Main Street; Mrs. James Gast, Oak Street; Mrs. Carl Castle, Silver Street; Mrs. Joe Azaroff, Glenwood. Captains not present include Mrs. Leonard Young and Mrs. Donald K. Stull, Pearl Street.

The March, which will be conducted from 7 to 8 p.m. on Jan. 28, will be a final appeal to wind up the 1954 March of Dimes. During that 60-minute period, mothers will call at every home and apartment building with a lighted porch or a lighted candle burning in the window.. Apartment dwellers can indicate their desire to contribute by tying a shoe, towel or handkerchief to their doorknobs.

Galion Loan Firm Notes Savings Hike

GALION — Savings reached an all-time high of $4,073,411.88 for 1953, it was reported at the annual meeting of stockholders of First Federal Savings and Loan Association of Galion Wednesday afternoon.

E. Paul Monroe, president, and other officers and directors were re-elected. The directors are: Monroe, H. L. Bodley, J. W. Wisterman, Fred Hocker and Kenneth M. Petri. Other officers besides the president are: executive vice president, Paul E. Nollen; vice president, J. W. Wisterman; secretary, Arthur C. Fair; treasurer. H. L. Bodley; counsel, Kenneth M. Petri.

Loan officials said that the high figure in savings showed an increase over last year of $453,764 or 12.8 per cent. Assets of the association now total $4,771,261.19, showing a percentage rise of 13.1 during 1953. Savings accounts increased 311, according to reports, with the total number at 3,247.

The association, in 1953, added $32,361 to reserves with the result that it now enjoys a reserve ratio of 11.6 per cent to total savings. Dividends paid during the year amounted to $90,859.81.

ALLOTTED AID FUNDS

WASHINGTON (AP) — India has been allotted 25½ million dollars in U.S. aid funds for the purchase of 240,000 tons of steel.

331 SUB-CONTRACTS LET

PORTSMOUTH, Ohio (AP) —The Atomic Energy Commission's Portsmouth office says 331 subcontracts totaling $145,417,001 have been awarded by prime contractor Peter Kiewit Sons Co. since the announcement a year and a half ago that there would be an atomic plant in nearby Pike County.

Ike Recommends Dillon Dam Funds

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower Thursday recommended appropriation of two million dollars to resume work on Dillon Dam near Zanesville, Ohio.

This is the first time any money has been budgeted for the Licking River flood control project since 1951.

Rep. Secrest told a reporter the money would be enough to complete relocation of Baltimore and Ohio trackage from the river's edge.

"It also would be enough," he said, "to keep work going during the entire year (starting July 1, 1954). I think we have a good chance of Congress putting up the money, too."

Mortgage Burning Off

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Post 86 of the Veterans of Foreign Wars has postponed the mortgage-burning ceremony it planned next month.

Only a few weeks ago the club paid off the last installmanet on its mortgage. Last night the club was heavily damaged by fire.

Minstrel Show Set Saturday at LaRue, Sponsored by PTA

The following officers were elected: president and cashier, Emery P. Kear; vice president, George W. Huston; vice president, R. B. Kear, and assistant cashier, Mrs. Ralph Gibson.

BURIED UNDER CORN

TOLEDO, Ohio (AP)—John Patterson, 19, buried under 7,000 bushels of sliding shelled corn at the bottom of an elevator, was suffocated yesterday at the Continental Grain Co. Patterson was attempting to clear an outlet when the grain began to slide.

Despondent Man Takes Fatal Leap

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP)—Some 300 onlookers watched in awe yesterday as a despondent man leaped to his death from the roof of a three-story hotel building in downtown Phoenix.

The victim was identified as William Walter Failey, about 50, of Washington, D. C. He died a few minutes later before his arrival at a hospial.

Failey walked around on the ledge for several minutes before making his fatal dive. Police and firemen were summoned to the scene as pedestrians gathered below.

Firemen spread a net but Failey made a running jump and landed on the alley pavement. Then he made his dive.

President Asks Right To Share Atomic Secrets

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower proposed Thursday this country share its ready-to-use atomic materials with friendly nations for peaceful purposes regardless of the outcome of atom talks with Russia.

Eisenhower also told Congress it is "essential" to give him at this session authority to pass on to America's Allies now-secret information on how to use atomic weapons in battle.

The President's proposals, part of his budget message for the year starting July 1, were contained in an atomic program which also called for:

1. A biggest-in-history $1,182,009,000 expansion program for the Atomic Energy Commission, with development and testing of "new weapon types" and stepped-up research to develop nuclear power for industrial use.

2. A bigger share for private industry "in the development of this new and uniquely attractive energy source."

3. An end to federal ownership of the "atom towns" of Oak Ridge, Tenn., and Richland, Wash., so people living there can buy homes, establish self - government and "manage their own affairs in a more normal fashion."

Steamboat Whistles Are Given to Museum

MARIETTA, Ohio (AP)—A whole boatload of steamboat whistles—from the old melodious seven-barreled one that signaled the approach of the steamboat Ransdell to a deep-throated tootler that could shake window panes for milles around—arrived here this week from Cincinnati.

The gift of Dan M. Heekin, a member of the Sons and Daughters of Pioneer Rivermen, they will be preserved in the Campus Martius River Museum.

Wins Divorce, Dog

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Blonde Phyllis Morris yesterday won a divorce and custody of Pamela, a poodle she testified awakened her with its barking when her husband Albert often came home at 4 or 5 in the morning.

She also was awarded custody of their 3-year-old daughter Melinda.

HEBREWS 12:1—"Wherefore seeing we also are compassed about with so great a cloud of witnesses, let us lay aside every weight, and the sin which doth so easily beset us, and run with patience the race that is set before us, Looking unto Jesus."

* * * *

As a young lad on the farm in the State of Illinois I was taught to read the Bible very early in life, in fact, before I became a Christian. Under the guidance of my Godly mother, I was instructed in the Christian way of life, both by interpretation of the Word and example of Christian living by my parents.

This particular verse fastened itself upon my boyhood mind as a motto for my own Christian achievement. I have always been interested in races, but more especially, in the race of life. To be keenly conscious of the great number of witnesses, it early became a practice of mine to do nothing, either in public or private that I would be ashamed of, therefore, this verse has been a great tonic to my Christian behaviour.

Again, I am always aware of the presence of Him who leads in the real values of life. "Looking unto Jesus"—what an incentive! One need never go astray with such a source of help and strength. He never leaves or forsakes, and forgiveness is His master principle. All this done, in patience, opens new vistas of Christian living for me daily.

Soldier Among Missing

INCHON, Korea (AP)—An American soldier is missing and presumed in the bone-chilling waters of Inchon harbor—where 29 Marines lost their lives yesterday.

The soldier was aboard a small landing craft carrying fuel oil oil from a ship in the outer harbor. The craft was later found on the mud flats, but helicopters that flew overhead found no sign of the soldier.

Salvation Army Advisers Meet

Marion Group Attends Session in Springfield

Members of the Marion Salvation Army advisory board were in Springfield Thursday where they attended a regional meeting of Salvation Army boards held in the Army citadel.

Speaker was Commissioner Norman S. Marshall of New York City, eastern territorial commander. Attending the meeting also was Brigadier Horace Weatherly, head of public relations at territorial headquarters in New York City. During his association with the Salvation Army headquarters in Cincinnati Brigadier Weatherly was a frequent visitor in Marion. Presiding was Brigadier Paul D. Seiler of Cincinnati.

Commissioner Marshall gave the board members a vivid picture of the Salvation Army, its resources and availibilities and expressed the Army's appreciation of the work of the advisory boards throughout the country. He will go to London later this year when a successor will be named to General Albert Orsborn, international chief of staff, who will retire June 30.

The commissioner also was the speaker for a dinner held at the Rustic Inn. In the evening there was an officers' and soldiers' rally in the citadel.

Attending from the Marion board were: J. B. Bray, Harold J. Grigsby, Cutler A. McGrew, Rev. Paul J. Goebel, Captain Mary Nisiewicz, Miss Mary K. Miley and Miss Edna S. Dutton. More than 20 members of the Corps attended the evening meeting

Captain Nisiewicz and Lt. Lorraine Sacks are in Cincinnati today attending an officers' meeting. At this time Captain Nisiewicz will give a report on the International Staff College course she attended in London last September.

Boards were present from Cincinnati, Dayton, Chillicothe, Portsmouth, Findlay, Piqui and Marion.

LATEST IN ATOMIC ATTIRE. Plastic, balloon-like suit is the latest atomic attire at General Electric Co.'s huge plutonium producing plant in Richland, Wash. It provides protective barrier radiation in "hot" areas, permitting a man to determine the extent of contamination and do cleanup and maintenance work in such areas. The "train" in the rear, a flexible plastic tunnel from the suit to a wall entrance, provides air and serves as entrance and exit passage. The air mask worn is used only if the suit accidentally becomes torn or punctured.

Censors Seek Clarification of Court's Ruling

NEW YORK (AP)—Dr. Clyde Hissong, Ohio censor and chairman of a group of 15 censors representing six states, says he has seen a recent ruling of the U.S. Supreme Court on movie cenorship and isn't sure what it means.

The court Monday ruled New York state could not censor as immoral the French film "La Ronde," depicting amourous adventures, and Ohio could not ban the movie "M" which is based on murder.

Yesteray Dr. Hugh M. Flick, director of the motion picture division of the New York education department, said at least one more Supreme Court decision is necessary to clarify the court's attitude toward censorship.

Hissong, head of the Ohio education department, said the group approve a statement drawn by Flick.

The statement read in part: "It might be noted that, although Justices Douglas and Black concurred in the opinion which states that there should be no censor ship of motion pictures, the other several justices failed to concur in this opinion, which should leave the inference that they did no agree."

Other states represented at the meeting were Kansas, Maryland, Pennsylvania and Virginia.

Phone Companies Ask 10-Cent Rate for Booths

The General Telephone Co. and six other independent phone companies in Ohio have asked the state utilities commission to allow a boost in pay-telephone rates from 5 to 10 cents.

The commission previously permitted Ohio Bell to boost pay phone rates. Other companies asking increases, are Delta Home Telephone Co., Mansfield Telephone Co., Conneaut Telephone Co., Elyria Telephone Co., Warren Telephone Co. and Chillicothe Telephone Co.

Mr. and Mrs. John W. Salisbury, 411 Kensington Rd. were honored at the Leader's Club annual dinner held Tuesday night at the Scioto Country Club in Columbus. Salisbury was named leader of the Central Ohio Agency of the Northwestern National Life Insurance Co.

German Life Described to 2 Groups Here

Members of the Marion Junior Chamber of Commerce joined the Y Men's Club Thursday night following their dinner meeting to hear a talk by Miss Liselatte Kaufmann of Germany.

Miss Kaufmann told of her life in Germany before, during and since World War II, and following her talk she answered questions.

The Jaycees held their monthly dinner meeting in the club rooms of the YMCA.

Jaycee president, William Flach, awarded pins to seven new members, Ray McDonald, Earl Krider, George Lupica, Warren Gillespie, Robert Limbert, Al Ralston and William Coulter.

Flach announced that the state Jaycee meeting will be held in Columbus Saturday and Sunday. Plans were made for the Jaycees to distribute posters next Wednesday in Marion County, urging residents to turn on their porch lights and to contribute to the Mothers' March on Polio. Charles Sidenstricker has charge of the propect.

Ed Paulin and Charles Mite, co-chairman of the "March to the Mike" program, gave an explanation of the program, explaining the "Crusade for Freedom" and the purpose of Radio Free Europe. The Jaycees endorsed the program.

A guest at Thursday night's meeting was Robert Hogan.

Church Here Hosts Presbytery Session

First Presbyterian Church in Marion was host church Tuesday to ministers and elders of 32 churches in the Marion Presbytery for the quarterly meeting of the group. Rev. James Verburg of Delaware is the moderator, and Rev. Howard L. Olewiler was host pastor. Business included election of representatives to the General Assembly in Detroit, Mich., in May.

Special speaker was Rev. Frank R. Jenkins, chaplain (lieutentant colonel) of the U. S. 8th Army, who has been with the 25th Infantry Division in Korea. He showed pictures of the work of the church in Korea where the Presbyterian denomination has a large missionary activity.

A guest, Rev. W. H. Shillington of Columbus spoke on behalf of the Ohio Council of Churches. Rev. Thomas G. Holmes of Sidney, superintendent of the Presbyterian Home for the Aged, spoke of the need of expansion to care for more persons from Ohio.

Commissioners elected to attend the General Assembly in Detroit for the ministers were, Rev. Rodger Sillars of Marysville, with Rev. Verburg as alternate, and for the elders, I. S. Wickersham of Belle Center with Arthur Haugen of Degraff as alternate.

Sessional records of all the churches were examined by the Presbytery under direction of Rev. Floyd E. Kline of Forest Lawn Church in Marion. Reports of foreign missions were adopted. The Presbytery, composed of one minister and one elder from each church, meets four times a year in regular session and at other times at the call of the moderator to transact urgent or special business. Marion Presbytery includes the area of Central Ohio.

Frank Knapp Honored By Insurance Association

At a luncheon meeting of the Marion County Association of Insurance Agents Wednesday at the YMCA, Frank M. Knapp of the Knapp and Smith Insurance agency was presented a plaque in honor of his 50 years in the business of selling general insurance. The award was made by A. W. Kette.

Mr. Knapp told of experiences in the early days of the firm. Robert S. Kraner presided. Discussion was held on rules and regulations of new laws concerning the insurance business.

George Sokolsky Wins High Journalism Award

George E. Sokolsky, columnist, lecturer and author of the column that appears daily in The Marion Star, has been named winner of the La Salle Collegian Award for "outstanding journalistic merit."

Sokolsky will go to Philadelphia Jan. 27 for the presentation of the award. A previous winner of the La Salle Collegian Award was Bob Considine, star reporter and columnist for International News Service.

Prexies Seek First Loop Triumph Tonight at Tiffin

Harding at Top Strength; Illness Hits Reserve Team

Harding winds up the first round of its Buckeye League season tonight, traveling to Tiffin Columbian in an attempt to win its first game in five conference starts.

The Prexies need a victory tonight to bring their 5-6 record up to .500. The opposition will also be seeking its first league win and will be out to improve a 2-6 record.

Harding will be at top strength, and Jim Lawler plansto start his usual first five: Bob Hamor, Don Smith, Dave Schnelker, Ron Conroy and Doug Bibler. For replacements he'll count on Max Kaelber, Joe Snouffer, Gene Armstrong and Phil Carroll.

Conroy continues to top the Prexie scoring column. He tallied 24 points against Fremont Ross last week to bring his season total to 152 and his average per game to 13.8. Hamor ranks second with 115 and Smith third with 106.

Although on the short end of a 2-6 record, Columbian has managed throughout the season to total the same number of points as its opponents — 418.

Tiffin lost its four previous league games by a total of only 22 points. Meeting the same opponents, Harding lost out by a total of 77 points.

Lawler scouted Columbian when it posted 60-38 win over Willard and reports that Bill Groman, a 5-9 forward, is the Tiffin sparkplug. Groman leads the Tiffin scorers with 15.5 points per game.

While the Prexies will be at peak strength, the Vice Prexies will be slowed down by injuries and illness as they seek their eighth win in 12 starts.

Dave Lockwood is suffering from a back injury, while Harold Jones is nursing a sprained ankle and Don Schweinfurth is down with tonsilitis. Lowell Carlisle has been sick all week and will be able to see only limited action.

The probable starting reserve lineup includes Frank D'Eramo, Keith Thackery, Paul Bender, Chet King and Lowell McFann.

Martinez, Casillo In Television Bout

NEW YORK (AP)—Vince Martinez and Rocky Casillo, two ambitious young welters who hope Kid Gavilan graduates with honors into the middleweight class, try to crack the top 10 ratings tonight.

Their 10-round match at Madison Square Garden will be carried on network radio (ABC) and television (NBC) starting at 10 p.m., (EST). Martinez is a 12 to 5 favorite.

The prize for the winner is supposed to be a Feb. 19 or March 5 date with Billy Graham, who is sure to be involved in any eliminations if Gavilan is forced to vacate his title. The Cuban Keed will have to give up the welter crown if he whips Bobo Olson or the 160-pound title April 2 in Chicago.

Meeker Shooters Drop Match to Tiffin Squad

The Meeker Sportsmen Club dropped a match to the Tiffin Rifle Club 1,422-1,408 Tuesday night at the winners' range. The Meeker shooters will travel to Lima next Tuesday for their next match.

Scores of the Meeker marksmen were as follows: Don Hinton, 284; Delbert Rush, 282: Allen Dreyer, 281; George Tron, 281; and George Oberdier, 280.

Slow Pension Plan Changes Seen by Frick

By JACK HAND

NEW YORK (AP) — Baseball Commissioner Ford Frick insists there can be no changes in the disputed player pension plan before 1956 when the current $1,100,000-per-year contract for World Series radio-TV expires.

"Nobody knows how much we will be able to get on a new contract," Frick said yesterday at a press conference where he distributed a financial report on the seven years of the pension plan.

"I have read where people talk of five million dollars," he said.

"You must remember we are talking about only what baseball will receive. If we were paid that much, a sponsor would have to pay five million dollars more for line charges, time and other expenses. I doubt very much if anybody can pick up a 10-million-dollar tab for five or seven days.

"Let's not get overoptimistic. I expect to start negotiations in 1955. It could be with a group of advertisers rather than one organization. One thing is certain. If we get more money under our new contract, the pension fund will be restudied to give the players every benefit possible."

The player representatives in September asked changes in the fund to raise monthly payments from $50 to $80 for five-year men and $100 and $150 for 10-year men. They also asked that annuities begin at 45 instead of 50 with lower player costs. Frick said he had been advised that would cost anywhere from 2¼ million to over $9,780,000 additional.

"Personally, I would rather see the pension go to some men who were not able to stay as long as five years," Frick said. "Even if it would be only $20 a month. I'll throw that into the hopper when we discuss any new plan."

Frick's report showed a balance of $598,400.02 in the major leagues central fund from which pension costs and other costs are paid. Total receipts for seven years included $913,352.64 from players and $6,976,247.77 "attributable to clubs." The All-Star Game receipts and Series radio-TV cash were counted in the clubs' payments.

That, of course, is the catch. The players claim all the radio-TV money from the Series goes to the pension fund. The majors insist it goes into a central fund that amounts to a joint bank account of the 16 clubs. In addition to pension payments, a share of the costs of the commissioner's office and refunds to clubs for income tax liability on the radio-TV cash come out of the central fund.

49 Shatter Par For San Diego Open's Course

RANCHO SANTA FE, Calif. (AP)—The wreckage that was a par decorated the Rancho golf course today as upward of 130 golfers headed into the second round of the $15,000 San Diego Open Tournament. An astounding number of 49 players out of 134 starters broke par 72 in the first round, and tournament officials sought to tighten up the course today.

Leading the procession into today's 18 holes was 27-year-old Bill Ogden of Chicago, whose 33-33-66 looked none too secure in the face of the par crackers just behind.

The Rancho course measures almost 6,800 yards and has par of 36-36-72. One stroke back of Ogden, a former Sacramento amateur star until he turned pro four years ago, were three players. They were U.S. Amateur champion Gene Littler of San Diego and pros Earl Stewart Jr., Dallas, and Bob Harris San Jose, Calif.

There were six players tied at 68, headed by Tommy Bolt of Maplewood, N. J. who won the San Diego event last year.

The 69 bracket found seven men, headed by E. J. (Dutch) Harrison, winner of the recent Bing Crosby Pro-Amateur Tournament, and Ed (Porky) Oliver. Fifteen pros were tied at 70. Rounding out the array of par beaters were 17 players knotted at 71.

Betsy Rawls Takes First Round Lead

TAMPA, Fla. (AP)—Betsy Rawls, who finished fast to post the day's best nine - hole score yesterday, held a two-stroke lead going into the second day of the 72-hole Tampa Women's Open Golf Tournament today.

The Spartanburg, S. C., pro came through with 35, three under par, on the home nine to give her a par 75 for the tricky, 6,093-yard Palma Ceia course.

Bunched behind her were Babe Zaharias of Tampa, who has won the tournament twice; Polly Riley, another former winner, from Fort Worth, Tex., and Jackie Pung, Honolulu.

Mrs. Zaharias and Miss Riley, the top amateur, played along steadily, the former hitting 38-39 and the latter 39-38.

Mrs. Pung had a good round going out, par 37, and was doing well on the way back until she hit into a trap on the 18th and took7 for the par 5 hole.

Louise Suggs, the little Georgian who is still the favorite to make this her third Tampa Open victory in a row, also had troubles on the back nine.

After a brilliant first nine 36, everything went wrong and she trudged home with 43 and a total of 79. That put her in a tie for ninth with Betty Dodd of Tampa.

MUSIAL SIGNS CONTRACT. Stan Musial (left) smiles as he takes writing pen from August A. Busch Jr., Cardinal president before signing his contract for the coming baseball season at Cards' office, St. Louis, Mo. Musial said he took no salary cut. He was reported to have been paid $80,000 last season.

Cards, Musial Reach Terms; 2 Still Hold Out

By The Associated Press

The St. Louis Cardinals, in the midst of a rebuilding program, still have two big salary problems-Red Schoendienst and Harvey Haddix—to tackle before they can go full speed ahead with their plans for 1954.

Schoendienst, runner-up to National League batting champion Carl Furillo last season and Haddix, a 20-game winner, are far from satisfied with the contracts they've been tendered for the upcoming campaign.

"We've had some talks with Schoendienst," August A. Busch, Cardinal prexy, said yesterday, "but at the moment we are not quite together."

Both Schoendienst and Haddix are reportedly asking $10,000 more than they received in 1953. Red is said to have received $35,000 last season and Haddix $8,000.

The Cardinals bagged their biggest catch of the contract signing season yesterday—Stan Musial. The six-time National League batting king put his signature on a pact calling for a reported $80,000-tops in the senior loop. Enos Slaughter, another of the Redbirds' veteran outfielders, came to terms last monh.

Eddie Mathews, another of the National League's foremost sluggers, also signed his contract yesterday. The hard-hitting Milwaukee third baseman, who earlier this week indicated he "might hold out," agreed verbally to terms with Lou Perini, the Braves' president. Best guess was that Eddie's salary for next season will be around $25,000.

Second baseman Bobby Young, a native of Baltimore, became the first Orioles' player to sign for '54 and outfielder Bill Renna and pitcher Walt Kellner were bagged by the Philadelphia A's.

OSU Athletic Head Announces $15,000 Scholarship Fund

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Ohio State University's athletic board has transferred $15,000 from athletic receipts to the scholarship comittee with "no strings attached," Athletic Director Dick Larkins announced today.

"We would not presume to dictate to the scholarship committee," Larkins said, "but we hope at least a portion of the funds will go to students who have top-notch academic records along with their athletic ability."

Larkins said the action "does not in any way constitute an athletic scholarship program in the popular conception of the term."

Transfer of the athletic funds to the scholarship is not a new procedure, the athletic director said. The same action was taken in 1950, 1951 and 1952, he said.

Rio Grande Edges Findlay 74-71; Bevo Limited to 32

NEW YORK (AP)—This was the year they said the University of Wichita would have to make the big splash in the Missouri Valley Conference. And Wichita's cagers are doing just that.

True, last nigh's 102-50 walloping of little Fort Hays State didn't add much stature to Wichita's No. 11 ranking in the latest Associated Press poll. But it underlined the threat the Shockers are making to the Oklahoma Aggies and St. Louis, the conference big wigs.

Up to this season, it was a case of the Aggies winning the conference crown most of the time and the Billikens the rest.

But boasting a 4-0 record in league play and an over-all 16-1 mark, the surprising Shockers are making a run for national recognition. A victory over St. Louis Saturday would put them right up there.

Last night's victory was Wichita's 14th straight. Its only loss came at the hands of Seattle Dec. 4, after having defeated the West Coast club the previous evening.

George Washington's 10th-ranked Colonials ran into unexpected trouble last night before finally subduing eight-times-beaten Virginia 73-71.

The Colonials, playing without star guard Elliott Karver, won their 12th game against one loss (to Maryland) on the contributions of the Holup brothers, Joe and John. Joe had 25 points and John chipped in with 19.

Even Bevo Francis had his troubles. The much-heralded high scorer tallied 32 points as Rio Grande edged Findlay 74-71. But the big man relinquished high-scoring honors for a change. Ronnie Marquette, a Findlay guard, had 36.

Craycraft Collects 37 In Green Camp Defeat

With Ron Craycraft's 37 points paving the way, Marion Brick and Tile swept to a 76-63 victory over Green Camp K of P at the Morral gym last night.

Green Camp forged ahead 23-20 lead in the first quarter and was in front when the half ended by a 39-37 count. The winners finally got control of the situation in the third period and set the pace the rest of the way.

Al Stover with 19 was high for the losers.

Green Camp sees its next action Saturday night when it meets Marion Industries in a preliminary to the Green Camp Elevator-Cleveland Browns game.

Marion's Skaters Take Hockey Finale at Louisville

Ken Schultz Leads Attack; Fight Marks Third Period

LOUISVILLE, Ky.—The Marion Barons, who handed the Louisville Stars an 8-3 defeat in their opening International Hockey League game, ironically were the masters of the Stars as they played their last game in Louisville last night.

Moved to Troy, Ohio, to be operated as a road club, the Stars, who had beaten Marion three times since that opening loss, were no match before 2,512 fans who watched Louisville's swan song. The Marion club won 7-2.

The win tightened the Barons' grip on third place in the league race. Boasting 48 points, Marion is just three points behind second-place Toledo and holds a four-point lead over Johnstown and Grand Rapids which are tied for fourth. Ken Schultz led the attack with a three-goal hat trick.

The Barons opened the scoring soon after the first faceoff when Ken Schultz took a short pass from Harold Jones and scored after only 1:08 of play. Twenty-four seconds later the Barons put the Stars in a deep hole by scoring again. At 1:32, Harold Jones went in for a medium.

Gordon Vejprava gave the Barons a 3-0 lead after 1:41 of the second period with a short shot.

Then the Stars appeared to fight back. John Sherban took a pass from Rollie Duranceau and registered a medium shot at 11:18.

However, Tony Poeta put the Stars right back in the hole with a short shot after a nice play at 16:48.

The Barons clinched it completely in the final period with three goals while Louisville was getting only one. A brief, but wild, fight occurred near the Baron goal near the end of the game when Marion Goalie Lou Crowdis and Frank Toyota tangled.

Crowdis and Toyota were banished, as were Murray Wilkie and Ted Lebioda of the Barons, and Bernie Hill and Bill Murphy of the Stars. The teams finished the final 1:29 two men short.

Williams Pins Fox In Wrestling Bout

Scotty Williams whipped Billy Fox in two straight falls last night during the main wrestling event at the armory.

The first fall went 24 minutes with Williams winning on a body grapevine. The second ended after 20 minutes when both were attempting flying tackles. Williams belted Fox and pinned him with a press.

Jim Lewis also won in straight falls over Dutch Schultz. Schultz was disqualified in the first fall for using tape in Lewis' eyes.

Gino Angelo won the 30-minute preliminary bout from Joe Dempsey after 13 minutes with a crab hold.

Hayes To Field Two-Unit Team For Ohio State

By FRITZ HOWELL

COLUMBUS, Ohio —Ohio State will field a two-unit football team next fall.

With the two-platoon system outlawed by the rules for the second straight season, Coach Woody Hayes of the Bucks said today he would construct two separate teams for the 1954 campaign, with the idea of using each for approximately half of each period.

Hayes said the Bucks lose only 10 lettermen from the 1953 squad which won six and lost three, and that he was hopeful the talent would be "deep" enough to permit the proposed plan.

"We'll have enough backfield depth, and we hope we can build two lines," Hayes said.

He said he thought the two-unit system would result in fewer injuries, and that fewer injuries would play a big part in the season's outcome.

"The kids who get hurt generally are tired," Hayes said. "Under the two-unit plan we'll use one squad for the first half of each period, and then toss in the other—a complete change of personnel.

"In that way we should be at top efficiency most of the time, since neither unit would be in long enough to tire and each would get plenty of rest."

He said one unit probably would be constructed with the aim of making it strong offensively, and the other strong defensively. If it works out that way, he said game conditions might keep one unit on the field longer than the other but that he planned to split the playing time as much as possible.

"We've found that under the single-platoon system, with the boys going both ways for long periods, we have been running fewer plays," Hayes said.

"We have a hunch the fans don't care too much for the slower game, and our two-unit plan should speed things up by allowing the boys to go all-out while on the field."

Pleasant Jr. High Squad Defeats Claridon 39-32

The Pleasant Junior High School cage squad shook the effects of a slow start last night to walk away with a 39-32 win over the Claridon juniors.

Claridon forged into a 10-5 lead in the opening period but Pleasant rallied in the second stanza and held a 19-18 edge at the half. The score at the three-quarter mark was 30-22. Richard Dutt topped the winners' scoring with 13 points and John Peacock collected 11. McClenathan with 14 and McCoy with 10 were high for the visitors.

The Pleasant team will see action against the Green Camp Junior High School team tonight as a preliminary to the varsity encounter.

NFL To Carry Player War to Canadian Loop

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — United States and Canadian professional football executives primed their checkbooks and mustered their legal forces today in an all-out war over football talent.

The feud over Canadian forays into American football player pools has blown hot and cold for several years.

Yesterday it was announced that Arnie Weinmeister of the New York Giants, one of the NFL's all-time top tackles, had signed a two-year contract with the new British Columbia Lions.

The 6-foot-4, 235-pound lineman no longer has a contract with the Giants, but the club still holds an option on his services for 1954.

Commissioner Bert Bell of the NFL promptly declared, "The war is on" between the U. S. and Canadian pro leagues.

He indicated the NFL might reverse the normal procedure and raid Canadian player resources.

"They had better start counting their players," he said. "We have a list of all Canadian players, some of whom could make some of our teams. We'll go after them if they go after our boys."

Meanwhile, Giants' President John V. Mara threatened legal action for breach of contract against Weinmeister.

Mara said the Giants had already notified Weinmeister of their intention to exercise their option on his services.

In Vancouver, B. C., Lions' Coach Annis Stukus said the club feels it has "fulfilled" all obligations concerning the Giants.

"He told them at the close of the season that he would not be back and that he was retiring from the National Football League," Stukus said.

The offer that drew Weinmeister to Canada was not disclosed, but a club official said the Giant lineman would be "one of the highest-paid players ever to play in Canada."

At Seattle Weinmeister also said he believes he was within his legal rights in signing with Vancouver.

"I did not violate any contract with the Giants," he said. "There was no misunderstanding. They knew 1953 was my last year with them. Attorneys have told me I'm perfectly free to go ahead with my contract with Vancouver even without the letters I have from the Giants' management. In their opinion, the option which the Giants hold on me for 1954 is not legally binding."

Weinmeister follows an impressive list of American college and pro players who have found the lure of Canadian football more attractive than the NFL.

Eastern Cage Quintet Takes Overtime Win

NEW YORK (AP)—George Mikan says the 1954 National Basketball Association All Star game was the greatest ever played anywhere.

George ought to know. He was picked as the outstanding basketball player of the last half century in The Associated Press poll. He starred in college ball at DePaul and has been the mainstay of the Minneapolis Lakers, national pro champions, for seven seasons.

Last night Mikan was on the losing team. The East squeezed past the West 98-93 in overtime at Madison Square Garden. Mikan personally extended the game the extra five minutes.

With the East leading 84-82 and the clock showing absolutely no time left big George shot, missed and drew a foul giving him two free throws.

The automatic buzzer sounded as he stepped to the line, meaning there would be no rebounds. The shots had to be good if the West was to force an overtime.

Mikan played second fiddle to a Laker teammate, Jim Pollard, in scoring. But his 18 points increased his All-Star total for 4 games to 78 points, 12 more than Ed Macauley of Boston, his nearest rival. Pollard got 23 last night, Macauley 13.

The victory was the East's third in the four All-Star contests.

Polio Benefit Arranged by Hockey Team

The Marion Barons will meet Grand Rapids' Rockets here next Wednesday in a benefit game for the March of Dimes.

Frank M. Foster, president of the club, along with Tony Hemmerling, general manager, have completed plans for the benefit performance after conferring with officials of the polio drive.

Club ofifcials have applied the slogan of the annual East-West Shrine football game to the hockey battle and have said, "The Barons will skate so that children may walk."

Coupons, valued at $1, will be placed on sale at Henney and Cooper, the National City Bank and at the Coliseum box office. Many individuals also will sell the coupons. The purchase of these coupons will apply to the price of any reserved seats.

Holders of season tickets will not be affected by the plan but may also contribute to the drive.

Agreement Signed

CINCINNATI (AP)—The Cincinnati Redlegs announced today the signing of a "limited" working agreement with the High Point-Thomasville club of the Carolina League. The Carolina League is a Class B organization.

Details of the working agreement were not disclosed.

Video Boxing Fans Booing Mismatches

CLEVELAND (AP)—The president of the National Boxing Assn. says the fight fans are tired of mismatches on television and they should do something about it.

"I think they can be eliminated if the public gets after sponsors to back only matches between fighters ranked nearly equal in ability," Andrew G. Putka said yesterday.

Describing the recent matching of featherweight champion Sandy Saddler and Bill Bossio as "disgraceful," he said:

"Something has got to be done about things like that or the game will be killed."

Saddler scored a technical knockout over Bossio in the ninth round after completely outclassing the diminutive fighter.

Radio and Television

Truth Is Stranger

When Martin Manulis first started producing "Suspense" a little over a year ago, he had never heard of a hood and didn't know what they were. He soon found out, though, and hoods, which had been pretty standard equipment on "Suspense" ever since its origin as a radio show, were banned from the show. Also banned: gangster stuff and psychopaths which had also been fairly common on "Suspense."

J. CROSBY

What Manulis wanted was a dramatic show with a suspense theme, not a mystery series. It took the writers quite awhile to get the hang of the thing. Gangsters and psychopaths and hoods are not easily dispensed with, once a writer gets them in his blood, and the percentage of rejects was very high at first. Gradually, a new and far more wholesome pattern emerged.

—:—

"SUSPENSE" stories now fall into three categories—true modern documentaries, classic stories, historical pieces based on fact or legend. If you'd tuned in last Tuesday, you'd have seen an example of the first category. It was a story called "The Scrap Iron Curtain" and it was about the nine people who fled Czechoslovakia in a home-built tank which, they quite correctly figured, would be the last thing in the world a border guard would challenge.

Two things struck me about this change in design. First, that true stories in these incredible times are much stranger than anything you can dream up. If you tell an audience today that what they are about to see is a true story they will accept anything, having been so conditioned by the newspapers. If a writer, on the other hand, had palmed this off as fiction, it might have been dismissed as preposterous. Imagine nine people behind the Iron Curtain building a passable and operable tank out of scraps and ingenuity. Ridiculous!

SECONDLY — an idea that has been kicked around at other times in this space — that the theme of escape is one of the most popular of our time. When the scene is the Iron Curtain it is actual escape from behind bars or from the police. Here, it is subtler, an escape into fantasy such as the Cinderella-like "Sabrina Fair" on Broadway or an escape into the past as in the movie "The Knights Of The Round Table"—but still escape.

Other true stories on "Suspense" have included the unsolved murder of Carol Tresca, the Italian editor in New York; and a chapter on mine-sweeping from Captain Walter Karig's book "Battle Report." Truth always has a bite and unexpectedness about it and sometimes this causes difficulties. One true story was about some wealthy no-goods who were trying to flee German - occupied Norway. For the protection of the whole underground movement, they were murdered. Years later the killers were tried and freed by an Oslo jury. Since you can't acquit murderers according to the TV code, the acquittal had to be announced as a news item at the end. It couldn't be dramatized.

TRUTH — OR FACT, if you prefer the word—doesn't follow man-made codes. In the second category — classics — Manulis has done Dickens, Stevenson's "Markheim" and Zola's "The Accounting." In the third category—historical pieces—have come the last hours of Rasputin, which were hair-raising. Rasputin, it has been fairly clearly established, was fed poisoned cake, poisoned wine, and was shot several times Still, he refused to die. Finally he was tied up, thrown into an icy river where he drowned, though not without a struggle.

Manulis is not trying for anything highbrow. He just wants to get some of the contrived quality out of "Suspense" and has done it so well that the rating has gone up. He thinks he has attracted some viewers who like suspense but not mysteries. He also goes in for off-beat casting. He used Dick Haymes, for example, as an Army flier, and Miroslava, a Mexican song and dance girl who is knoyn as the Mexican Ginger Rogers, in her first dramatic role in a French revolution drama called "The Reign of Terror."

They're not masterpieces bu they are a couple of cuts above the old "Suspense" series. Some very good writers have contributed dramas to him—one of them being Robert Anderson whose "Tea And Sympathy" is a reigning Broadway hit, and Edmund Morris whose "The Wooden Dish" will be on Broadway later this season.

GOOD EXAMPLE

MANCHESTER, Conn. (UP)—A conscience-stricken youth paid a startled supermarket owner $4 for two baskets of apples he said he stole two years ago. Frank Obremski, who has had other thefts recently, said, "Maybe this will bring on a rash of stricken consciences—I hope so"

STEVE CANYON By Milton Caniff

HERSELF MULDOON, AIRLINE OPERATOR! I COULDN'T BE MORE AMAZED! WHAT'S THE PITCH?
CANYON, I DESPISE THE NAME HERSELF, BUT IT HAS MADE ME A LEGEND—WHICH IS A COMMERCIAL ASSET! YET, WHEN I FORMED THE INDASIA AIR COMPANY, I SET UP A DUMMY OWNERSHIP IN WHICH MY NAME DOES NOT APPEAR!
HERSELF TELLS STEVE OF THE INDASIA AIR OPERATION AS THEY DANCE THE NIGHT AWAY—THEN...
I'M DOING BETTER THAN I EXPECTED... BUT I MUST EASE MYSELF INTO THIS SETUP SOME WAY...
EXCUSE ME, CANYON. I MUST CHANGE CLOTHES CHANGE?
YES—BECAUSE YOU AND I AND MY STRONG-ARM BOY ARE DRIVING TO THE AIRPORT TO PUT YOU ON THE PASSENGER AIRPLANE FOR MANILA!... AFTER YOUR QUIZ PROGRAM, I AM MORE THAN EVER CONVINCED YOU ARE A YANKEE SPY!

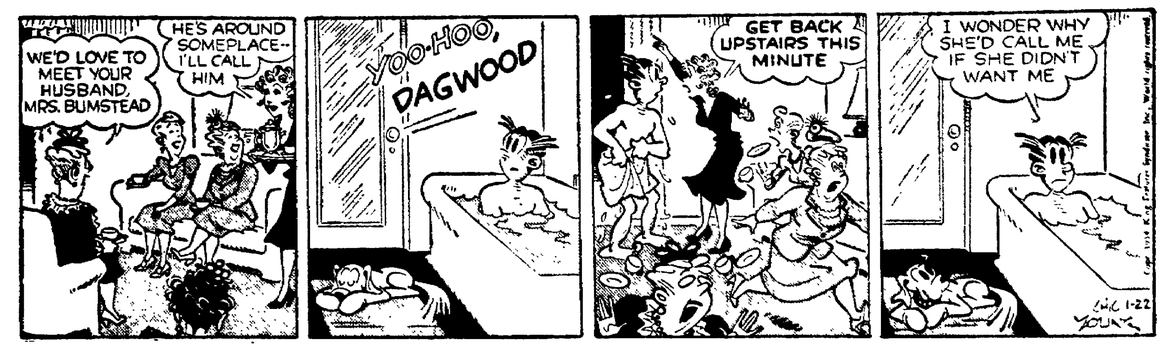
THE HEART OF JULIET JONES By Stan Drake

I'LL PROBABLY GET PRETTY FED UP WITH THIS TENDER UNDERSTANDING ROLE... BUT YOU'D BETTER TAKE ADVANTAGE OF IT WHILE YOU CAN, JULIE. DRINK THIS... GOOD FOR WHAT AILS YOU.
THANKS, EVE...
YOU'LL PROBABLY THINK I'M CRAZY, BUT I'VE GOT A FUNNY HUNCH ABOUT WHAT EFFECT YOUR PHONE CALL MAY HAVE ON THE TEMPERAMENTAL DUSTY—
YOU HAVE?—WHAT?
NO PREDICTIONS WITHOUT MY CRYSTAL BALL HANDY... AND, IF I MAY BORROW YOUR FAVORITE LINE: GO TO SLEEP, YOU'LL FEEL LOADS BETTER IN THE MORNING!

BLONDIE By Chic Young



WE'D LOVE TO MEET YOUR HUSBAND, MRS. BUMSTEAD
HE'S AROUND SOMEPLACE—I'LL CALL HIM
YOO-HOO, DAGWOOD

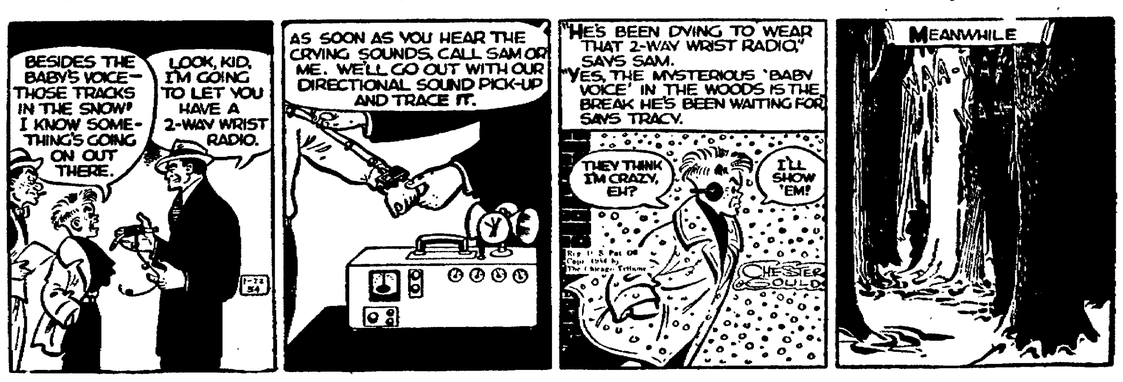
DICK TRACY By Chester Gould



BESIDES THE BABY'S VOICE—THOSE TRACKS IN THE SNOW! I KNOW SOMETHING'S GOING ON OUT THERE.
LOOK, KID, I'M GOING TO LET YOU HAVE A 2-WAY WRIST RADIO.
AS SOON AS YOU HEAR THE CRYING SOUNDS, CALL SAM OR ME. WE'LL GO OUT WITH OUR DIRECTIONAL SOUND PICK-UP AND TRACE IT.
"HE'S BEEN DYING TO WEAR THAT 2-WAY WRIST RADIO," SAYS SAM. "YES, THE MYSTERIOUS 'BABY VOICE' IN THE WOODS IS THE BREAK HE'S BEEN WAITING FOR," SAYS TRACY.
THEY THINK I'M CRAZY, EH?
I'LL SHOW 'EM!

RIP KIRBY By Alex Raymond

YOU WON'T MIND MY GOING WITH CRUSHER TO MEET MISS ROBBINS, SIR?
I MEANT YOU TO GO, DESMOND. KEEP YOUR EYES OPEN AND STAY WITH OUR FRIEND TO THE HAPPY ENDING.
NOT SO FAST, CRUSHER! THE TRAIN DOESN'T PULL OUT FOR TEN MINUTES!
WE'D BETTER NOT TAKE ANY CHANCES... HURRY!
JUST THINK, DESMOND, SOON I'LL SEE JENNY HERSELF... TALK TO HER... MAYBE HOLD HER HAND...
IN THE MOST GENTLEMANLY WAY, OF COURSE, CRUSHER... REMEMBER LESSON THIRTEEN...

SUPERMAN By Wayne Boring

IN HERE, SUPERMAN, BEFORE IT'S TOO LATE TO HELP!
OH-OH—I CAN'T BEG OUT OF THIS. MY ONLY HOPE IS THAT IT'S SOMETHING I'LL BE ABLE TO MANAGE WITHOUT MY POWERS!
NOW! LET HIM HAVE IT.'
HUH? A TRAP! I—I'M DONE FOR.'

TERRY AND THE PIRATES By George Wunder

THE BARBED WIRE FRONTIER BETWEEN HERE AND HONG KONG IS CONSTANTLY PATROLLED BY SQUADS SUCH AS YOU LEAD, SERGEANT.
AT ONE HOUR PAST DAWN TOMORROW, YOU WILL HALT YOUR UNIT WHILE YOU BERATE ONE OF YOUR MEN FOR A FANCIED MILITARY SIN. THIS WILL LEAVE YOUR STRETCH UNGUARDED.
I IMAGINE TEN MINUTES SHOULD BE SUFFICIENT TO EXHAUST YOUR VOCABULARY AND TO ENABLE US TO CUT THE WIRE AND PASS THROUGH.
